Protesting Teamsters Block Airport

MOB SCENE—An estimated 300 teamsters took part in a "stall-in" at International Airport Sunday to continue their protest against a non-union trucking firm. The main entrance and exit roads were completely blocked for a half-hour and freight operations were disrupted for four hours. Rocks and bottles were thrown in the melee. One sheriff's deputy was injured and three teamsters were arrested. Police from several North County cities responded. (Post Photo)

Airport Back To Normal; Pickets Out

By VIRGIL WILSON

It was business as usual at International Airport today following the withdrawal of Teamster Union pickets Monday.

The pickets were pulled out after San Francisco Mayor Joseph L. Alioto banned the Viking Delivery Service, a non-union company with which Teamster Local 85 has been fighting for many months, from the airport.

Viking attorneys were scheduled to appear in Superior Court in Redwood City today to fight the mayor's order and ask that union officials be held in contempt of court for violating the terms of an injunction issued last October.

J. Richard Thesing, attorney for the Viking firm, termed yesterday's action by Alioto as "outrageous" and encouraging mob rule.

"There is a mob out there, and the easiest way to prevent violence is to keep Viking from coming in," the attorney said.

He contended that the mayor's ban is a "political settlement which ignores the rights of the parties (involved) and undermines the National Labor Relations Board."

Thesing claimed that Alioto gave no credence to court cases seeking to ban secondary boycotts. He is "looking into ways" of contesting Alioto's action, the attorney stated.

Pickets cut off most taxi, bus, limousine and truck service at the airport yesterday, in protest against the presence of the Viking Company, which took over the accounts of the Shulman Air Freight Company ten days ago but refused to hire ten union drivers who had worked for Shulman.

The meeting yesterday in Alioto's office was called after a day of violence Sunday, in which several sheriff's deputies were roughed up and three union members were arrested. Attending the meeting were Supervisor James V. Fitzgerald of San Mateo County and about 30

SUMMER PROGRAM

Low-Income Youth Gain Boost In D.C.

The Daly City summer work program, aimed at getting youth from low income families summer jobs, got a substantial boost from several city civic organizations Monday.

Stan Cohan, president of the Daly City Rotary Club, met with the city council in a public study session to discuss ways and means of securing jobs for youth this summer.

Cohen, representing the six-member Inter-City Club Council suggested a citywide cleanup program be initiated.

Such a project would have twin benefits, Cohen outlined: It would provide youth jobs and clean up the city.

He said the Inter-City Club Council would get a fund starter among club members and send it to the city to be used in the program.

Cohen noted that the Rotary Club already donated $500, but called this donation "a drop in the bucket" in comparison to what was actually needed to help the city's youth.

Such monies would have to be lumped into the general fund and could not be earmarked for any specific projects, Cohen was informed.

Mayor Bernard (Bud) Lycett said the program could use the money but its uses would have to be determined on a priority selection basis. Lycett said one program that could employ some 100 youth was the Latin Heritage program and similar tutorial programs.

But the programs are in danger of being drastically curtailed unless funds are provided—and soon.

Daly City information and Referral Center head, Marion Goodwin, explained the tutorial program (which is in addition to the summer work program where employers hire youth to work in stores) has 100 youth ready for work.

Goodwin said he would like to see 200 youths participating in the program, however the budget for 100 youth is $37,000 and the county has contributed only $9,000 toward the program. The remainder must come from local contributions, Goodwin said.

Cohen said his organization did not want to pin the city down on where the youth work.

"Our main concern is that as many youth as possible be put into the work program," Cohen said in pledging to "do what we can to assist this program."

Golf Course Assessment: No Change

The State Constitution Revision Commission has decided to continue assessing California's non-profit golf courses as golf courses and not at their "highest and best use" as had been proposed.

Had the amendment passed and been enacted it would have wiped out virtually half the golf courses in the state, including several in San Mateo County.

Instead, the commission meeting in Claremont announced they would leave section 2.6, of Article XIII as it was but with a slight addition:

The self-executing sections pertaining to the clubs would be deleted and a club would not qualify as a non-profit organization if it was proven anyone had been discriminated against because of race, color or creed.

Attorney Paul Hupf, a member of the Lake Merced County Club in Daly City and a partner in the legal firm of Hupf, Etcheverry and Coan, said response to the commission's action had been good.

Noting that the revision would ultimately have to be adopted by the general public, Hupf ventured that the matter "won't excite too much attention."

Hupf feels the commission's action in the matter was "far

Jet Noise Action By South S.F.

South San Francisco councilmen Monday night added fuel to a burning desire to rid the city of objectionable jet noise. Here's what they did:

Allocated the expenditure of $1500 for a year's membership in a newly formed national organization — the National Organization to Insure a Sound-Controlled Environment.

Went on record in opposition to proposed standards of assembly bill 645, a bill in the state legislature having to do with the establishment of noise standards for California airports.

Tentatively agreed to hire (depending on the fee) George Wilson of the acoustical consultant firm of Wilson, Ihrig and Associates, Inc., to represent the city at the May 20 public hearing in San Francisco on the setting of noise standards as authorized by assembly bill 645.

Urged concerned residents to write letters to officials on the state, county and national level.

Assured school board trustee Lorraine Cooper that the council would certainly be happy to forward copies of all pertinent information to the school district so it could take appropriate action.

Councilmen then sat back and heard a resident read a letter he had written to San Francisco Mayor Joseph Alioto, which succinctly expressed the feelings of many residents in the audience (and presumably throughout the city) bothered by jet noise.

In the letter, Raymond B. Cook, of 274 Westview Drive, says he has lived in South San Francisco since 1963, and has "helplessly seen the progressive inrusion of noise into my home, from aircraft departing San Francisco International Airport."

He cited one particular day in

Joint Meeting

CTA Chapter Also Voting

By BOB PETERSON
Post-Times Writer

Membership of the South San Francisco American Federation of Teachers (AFT) on Monday afternoon voted to strike the school district, pending outcome of a membership meeting vote of the district's California Teacher Association (CTA) today.

Bob Gehl, president of the AFT, said about half of the AFT membership was present at the meeting on Monday and "they voted unanimously in written ballot to strike."

He read part of the resolution which stated that members of the AFT "withdraw teaching services from the district in accordance with specific strike program as concurred in by CTA and-or other South San Francisco teachers meeting in general assembly on or about May 12."

This is effect means that the AFT will await the outcome of this afternoon's general membership meeting of the CTA. Should the CTA also vote to withdraw services, the two groups would then get together in general assembly about May 12 to outline procedures. Effective date of the strike would be at the discretion of the organizational leadership of the two groups.

Incidentally, the CTA representative council also met on Monday. They voted to "reject the school board offer," but made no specific recommendations for today's general membership meeting.

Gehl said that every teacher in the district has received a two-page letter signed by the school board members in which they "threatened a suit" for breach of contract.

"I would condemn these underhanded scare tactics," said Gehl. "With 600 teachers working together, no one will fire anyone."

Strike action has been brewing in the South San Francisco Unified School District since the

7 Negotiable Issues Are Discussed

Little satisfaction was obtained for teachers of the South San Francisco Unified School District Wednesday night as negotiating council representatives failed to reach trustees in a quest to rectify what they consider inequities.

Chief spokesman of the council, Conrad Mezzetta, said the result of the negotiations would be referred back to teachers.

The unanswered question on the minds of many of the more than 100 persons attending the session is whether this rejection by the board means a strike in the South San Francisco schools.

Only last Tuesday Bob Gehl, president of the South San Francisco American Federation of Teachers (AFT) and Larry Heacock, first vice president of the district's California Teachers' Association (CTA told a group of parents that unless the board took some immediate action fa-

Coastside Scavengers Now Dumping At Mussel Rock

Coastside Scavengers "officially" began dumping operations at the Mussel Rock dumpsite in Daly City yesterday.

The Pacifica Refuse Company had been given authorizaton by Daly City City Mgr. David Rowe four days ago to dump garbage at the Mussel Rock site following an April 30 meeting between scavenger company officials from both cities.

Rowe's short term authorization to use the dump hinged on the city council granting a longer extension

The council Monday unanimously agreed to extend the authorization for another 60 days while Pacifica scavengers seek another dump.

Talks between goth city scavenger companies had been going on for the past three months, however the "emergency authorization" and subsequent council approval caught observers by surprise.

City Aty. Albert Polonsky assured the council the dumping by Pacifica was "not a continuous thing . . . nor is (the authorization) renewable without coming back to this council."

It would also give the Coastside Scavenger Company time to look around for a suitable dump site, Polonsky assured.

But Mayor Bernard (Bud) Lycett expressed the fear that the Pacifica firm may not bother to look further for a dump. He said the two months would give the city time to see if dumping by the outside firm would be economically feasible and if it was right.

The importation of Pacifica's garbage into Daly City was justified by those concerned because of the emergency nature of the situation.

Dumping operations by Coastside in Pacifca ceased as of midnight April 30.

Rowe stepped in and granted the short term authority for dumping until midnight May 4 (Monday night) on this basis.

Store Aide Kidnaped, Safe Robbed

The assistant manager of a San Francisco Safeway store was kidnaped from his Daly City home Sunday and handed over the store's safe combination and keys after his abductors threatened to blow up his Westlake Knolls home if he refused to cooperate.

Joseph Ogas told police he received a phone call shortly after 10 p.m. informing him he was needed to turn off the burglar alarm at the Seventh Avenue store.

As he started to climb into his car parked inside the garage a man accosted him, brandishing a gun, and ordered Ogas to lie down on the floor of the car on the passenger's side.

A few minutes later the car pulled into a lonely area of San Francisco's Sutro Park where the first gunman met a second man waiting in another car.

Together they handcuffed Ogas' hands behind his back and took his wallet, keys and the safe combination.

The second suspect stood guard over Ogas while the first

An Old Formula At Work

Big Job, But Too Few People

By FRANK LaPIERRE
Post-Times Writer

The Daly City Businessmen's breakfast aimed at getting jobs for youth from low income families during the summer vacation is getting to be something of a bore.

Once each month the same people show up at the same restaurant and talk about the same thing, not to mention the fact that these same people are always the same when it comes to volunteering for this added duty or that extra working to secure the jobs for youth.

And that's why the program is in danger of never really getting off the ground, Mayor (Bud) Lycett told the same group at Lyons Restaurant Friday morning.

"There must be many more people like you in the community," the mayor ventured, "and all we have to do is kick them out from under the bushes."

It was the same "pep talk" the mayor has given the same citizens for the past three years, with the exception of one or two new faces and a different meeting room.

But the facts are clear: The work program is in great need of money and jobs for youth.

This year there is a bumper crop of youths needing work and only a parched crop of slots open. Purse strings are even tighter.

"Get involved is the name of this game," Mayor Lycett told the group of a dozen who nodded agreement.

Statistics on the number of jobs offered to youth who want to work to earn money to buy clothes for their return to school in the fall are depressing.

"You can look around this room and see the same people offering summer jobs that have offered them every year," Mayor Lycett said.

There is a glimmer of hope, however, in the response of several "new" members of the businessmen's breakfast group.

As an example of this, there is the substantial donation ($500) made by the Rotary Club International; two pledges from Mel Lichtman for jobs at his Shakey's Pizza Parlor; 27 jobs at Daly City city departments; along with several tentative pledges from others attending the breakfast.

QFI's Leo Musso suggested various unions be represented at the next meeting in order to get approval to use youth on a part-time basis during the summer.

Without their approval the markets cannot hire these youth, Musso said.

Lycett said he had asked for such representation "on this and past occasions" but no one showed up.

It had been hoped that the markets could find slots for a number of youths this summer.

Freeway Hit-Run Victim Identified As Coast Boy

The body of a hit-run victim found at 6 a.m. Saturday beside Skyline Boulevard in Daly City was identified 16 hours later as that of Robert Mark Mick, 13, of 7 Westcliff Court, Pacifica.

Coroner Paul B. Jansen said the identification was made by the boy's father, Charles S. Mick.

It appeared, the coroner said, that the boy was killed instantly when he was struck by a car while walking toward Lake Merced with his fishing pole and box of tackle.

The youth had been dead about two or three hours when he was discovered by a passing motorist, Jensen reported .

The father reported him missing when he failed to return home in the evening as scheduled. It was not long until authorities connected the missing person report, filed with the Pacifica Police Department, with the accident report taken by the California Highway Patrol.

The boy's body, which was thrown or carried on the front of the hit-run car for 110 feet, was found beside a guard rail on the east side of the highway, indicating that Robert was either walking with the flow of traffic or was hitch-hiking.

In addition to his father, the young victim is survived by his mother, Patricia Mick, and a brother and sister.

Choice On Committee Splits Vote

Who will represent San Mateo County on a committee studying the feasibility of extending the BART system from its terminus in Daly City to the San Francisco International Airport?

South San Francisco or Daly City?

This was a question which split the San Mateo County Council of Mayors meeting in Atherton last week.

The county was represented on a study committee by Vice Mayor Karney Barberian of San Bruno, who was defeated by a scant eight votes in his nod for re-election.

The County Board of Supervisors had allocated 77,833 as its share of a feasbility study.

Last night Millbrae Councilman William Glang nominated Councilman Francis P. Pacelli of Daly City to replace Barberian on the board.

Mayor Patrick Ahern of South San Francisco immediately countered with a motion putting Councilman Frank Bertucelli into the race saying, "We are the next city BART can go through."

Most clubs have bent over backwards to protect their non-profit status.

Lake Merced is no exception and has made their facilities available for charitable and civic events annually, Club President Charles R. Greenstone Sr. pointed out.

Each year the Lake Merced club, in accordance with guidelines set down by the Internal Revenue Service, accepts a minimum of ten "outside" tournaments from organizations of every type, Greenstone earlier informed the commission prior to their April meeting. —F.L.P.

She's 'Mother Of The Year'

MRS. PATRICIA OLIVER of Daly City admires flowers being pinned by Gene Perry of Westlake Shopping Center after her selection as "Mother of the Year" in a contest sponsored by the shop center and The Times-Post. Mrs. Oliver Is 'Mother Of The Year' In Post-Times, Shop Center Contest

'She's All We Have,' Says Her Daughter

Mrs. Patricia Oliver of 380 Washington Street, Daly City, has been selected as "Mother of the Year" from over 3,000 entrants in the annual contest sponsored by the Post and Times and the Westlake Shopping Center.

Mrs. Oliver will receive a $250 merchandise order from the Westlake Shopping Center.

Mrs. Oliver's daughter, Tonya, age 12, 7th grade pupil at Ben Franklin school wrote this winning letter:

"She is kind, gentle, helpful, intelligent, sweet and she is something every Mother should be . . . Understanding.

"She irons-sews-cooks-does plumbing and everything else.

"Why does she do plumbing? well my mother is special because she had to be mother and father to us. She is all we have."

Second place, with $50 in merchandise orders from Westlake Shopping Center, was won by Mrs. Erma Robinson of 1184 Fernandez Way, Pacifica.

Rina Robinson, age 7, for Pedro Valley School, wrote the runner-up letter.

Third award of $25 in merchandise orders from Westlake Shopping Center went to Mrs. Nancy Padreddii of 499 Andover Street, Pacifica. Her son, Michael, a student at Holy Angels School, wrote in to tell why his Mom was the "greatest."

San Bruno Arrests Six On Charges Of Gambling

Six persons, including the owners of Artichoke Joe's and The Dog House cocktail lounge in San Bruno, are scheduled to appear in South San Francisco District Court at 2 p.m. May 11 to answer charges of permitting illegal pinball operations, and making payoffs on them.

San Bruno Police Capt. William Cann released a statement Tuesday saying the arrests, made at about noon on Friday, was part of a joint effort of the San Bruno police and the district attorney's office. He said the investigation is continuing.

Booked on the illegal pinball operation charges, then released immediately on $500 bail each, were: Joseph Sammut Jr., 53, of 709 Mills Avenue, and Joseph Sammut III, 28, of 432 Chestnut Avenue, both of San Bruno and co-owners of Artichoke Joe's, 676 San Mateo Avenue; Eric Carlyle, 71, of San Francisco, and Helen Price, 52, of 1300 El Camino Real, Millbrae, co- owners of The Dog House, 130 El Camino Real; and Dog House Bartenders Ted McHugh, 48, of 1300 El Camino Real, Apt. 14, Millbrae, and Edward Segali, 51, of 1380 El Camino Real, Millbrae.

Captain Cann said the arrests were made on special warrants for the establishments and individually for the six people.

Annual Dinner To Honor Outstanding Students

Nine students from the combined student bodies of Westmoor and Jefferson High Schools will be honored by the Daly City-Colma Chamber of Commerce on May 15 at the eleventh annual "Awards to Outstanding Students" dinner.

"These will be hardworking youths who have applied themselves in achieving high academic standards. For some it was easy, for others, difficult," Elio A. Fontana, Jefferson Union High School District trustee and Chamber director said.

"In this era of turmoil, student unrest and militancy this award now achieves an even higher degree of importance," Fontana said.

The nine students include:

Richard Guisti, son of Oscar Giusti Jr., 1012 Wildwood Avenue. Richard has earned an academic record which places him fourth in a class of 550 and has twice earned "A" grades in junior college courses. He is the only student to enter Westmoor High with a request from elementary teachers that he be allowed to skp algebra 1-2 and enter geometry as a ninth grade student.

As a senior he has placed fourth in the senior division and first in the Santa Clara Math contest and twelfth in the Northern California-Nevada section of the National Mathematics Contest.

Because of his personal qualities, his service to others and his outstanding academic and co-curricular accomplishments he was selected by his peers and the school staff as the Outstanding Senior Boy in the class of 1970.

Rebecca Rozman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clyde A. Rozman, 758 Higate Drive, started school in San Diego and moved to Daly City in the middle of the second grade.

She earned 41 "A" semester grades and in the fall semester of the ninth grade got a single "B plus" grade.

Miss Rozman is one of two class valedictorians of 1970 and a life member of the California Scholarship Federation. Also a recipient of the DAR Outstanding Senior Girl Award and many other honors, according to school authorities.

Her interests include science and homemaking, and she is expected to become a teacher of science or a medical researcher.

Jean Ratto, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Ratto, 20 Lake Vista Drive, has attended all 12 years of schooling in Daly City.

While at Westmoor High School she has earned 41 "A" semester grades, with a single "B plus" grade earned in her sophomore year in Physical Education.

She is also one of the two Valedictorians of the class of 1970 and a Life Member of the California Scholarship Federation.

Miss Ratto has earned an Outstanding Junior Award in Chemistry and is interested in the field of science. She is expected to matriculate to a college

Lorraine Thomas is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Thomas, 91 Carleton Avenue. She has been nominated by staff and senior students as the Outstanding Senior Girl for the Class of 1970.

Miss Thomas is a Life Member of the California Scholarship Federation and a student aide in the Educationally Handicapped program. She has also won the Bank of America's Outstanding Student Certificate in Foreign Language and was selected to be one of the Spirit Week judges. She is expected to take up a vocation as a social worker or counselor.

Jefferson High School administrators submitted the names of five students:

Daniel Gong, son of Mr. and Mrs. B. Gong, 829 Bellevue Avenue, has a Grade Point Average of 3.81 and is co-valedictorian of the Class of 1970. He is interested in academic fields, but has taken time to work with the Model Senate and also has been active in the Chess Club during his Junior and Senior years.

Arlene King, daughter of Mrs. June Lebhurtz, 178 Oriente Street, has a G.P.A. of 3.81 and is co-Valedictorian of the Class of 1970 She is an outstanding violinist, according to her teachers, and has been interviewed by both the University of California and Stanford as a possible addition to their orchestras.

Richard Lee, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. Lee, 859 Templeton Avenue, has a G.P.A. of 3.76 and is class Salutorian. He is considered the "Iron man" of Jefferson's Student Body and has a keen mind and forthright manner.

Madlyn Norman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. Mitchell, 462 Niantic Avenue. She is an outstanding all-around student Miss Norman's teachers said.

"She is outstanding becaure she is one of the highest ranking students in her class; outstanding because of her deep involvement in school and community affairs; outstanding because of her eagerness to accept responsibility and her conscientiousness in performing her duties."

Riley Atkins, son of Mrs. Gertrude Atkins, 37 Rice Street, is called Jefferson's "Golden Boy" because of his fine academic average of 3.71 and his extra-curricular activities which have impressed those around him. He has represented the school at the "President's Classroom" last year and was Student Body President last fall.

He is now senior class president.

He noted that in the vicinity of his home the duration of noise from each departing flight averages between one and one-and-a-half minutes.

"I could cite the number of hours of noise this represents but it would be more meaningful to you if you would calculate it for yourself. I hope you will take the time to do so.

"Mr. Alioto, without even a suggestion of a smile, I flatly state that the the situation has become intolerable. My house is for sale for that reason; I can no longer bear this contemptuous violation of my peace.

"I ask from you, please, a statement which describes the right under which the City and County of San Francisco, through their operation of International Airport, pursues this relentless attack on my right of privacy."

Councilman Frank Mammini especially was pleased with the letter and suggested that residents use it as a model in letter writing campaigns to the various officials in a position to do something about the growing noise problem.

In joining the National Organization to Insure a Sound-controlled Environment (NOISE), South San Francisco joins such cities as Hempstead, N.Y., next to Kennedy International; Inglewood, Calif., next to Los Angeles International; Bensenville, Ill., next to Chicago's O'Hare Field, and Richfield, Minnesota, next to the Twin Cities' Airport.

NOISE is the first organization dedicated to lobbying to suppress jet noise. The consensus is that one city alone cannot fight the problem, but with a united effort there is a chance for success.

As pointed out by the organization, noise pollution is readily becoming one of the country's leading domestic problems. More and more medical studies reveal the disasterous effect noise is having on human health. Jet planes, as they are now operating, are among the worst producers of noise pollution.

Councilman Mammini, who has been instrumental in pushing the fight against noise, said the reason the city should oppose the proposed standards of Assembly Bill 645 is because these proposed standards are beyond conditions that already exist.

According to Mammini, one of the individuals on the committee that set up the standards is an airline executive.

Another form of citizen support was given when Ed Rickenbacher, council candidate in the past election, presented the councilmen with a 200 signature petition "from all over South San Francisco" collected in four hours of work over the weekend.

Turk Murphy Due At Shop Center May 16

Turk Murphy, and his famous San Francisco Jazz Band, featuring Miss Pat Yankee, will be featured May 16 at the Westlake Shopping Center.

Murphy and his Jazz Band are returning to Westlake by popular shopper demand in that his last season's Westlake show was so warmly received.

Currently appearing at San Francisco's Earthquake McGoon's, Murphy and his group will not only play in concert at 1 p.m. but will present the same stage show which has been drawing standing room crowds at the downtown nitery.

Murphy and the band is recently returned from Las Vegas where they guested several times with Woody Allen on the Merv Griffin Show. In the interim they have joined in concerts with Disneyland's Firehouse Five—Plus 2. They also boast 15 LP record albums to their credit.

Vocalist Pat Yankee is a show in herself and is noted for her renditions in the "old blues style." Pete Clute plays ragtime piano, Leon Oakley is on cornet, while two new members round out the group — Phil Howe, clarinet, and Jim Maihack, who doubles on tuba and banjo.

Jefferson Elementary To Review Philosophy Report

Trustees of the Jefferson Elementary School District tomorrow will review the efforts of the board-appointed Citizens Committee on School Philosophy.

Committee Chairman Dr. Tom Kilpatrick spoke only briefly this week about the group's activities.

However, later he released the 35-member committee's basic proposal.

It follows:

"Today's child is a socially aware, complex individual who is constantly attempting to relate the relevancy of education to his particular needs and to the needs of society. Therefore, we believe that:

"The most important goal in the education process is the motivation of the child to develop reasoning ability, to make intelligent judgments, and to search for further knowledge.

"Achievement in the basic skills to the extent of the child's abilities is essential.

"The school system must be prepared to provide a flexible program which will meet the varied needs of the student with his or her wide range of abilities and interests, motivating each to realize his or her maximum potential.

"Emphasis must be given to the early identification of learning difficulties, and the provision of the means necessary to resolve them.

"The school must provide a healthful learning environment conducive to sensitive and stable emotional growth.

"It is important that the child be encouraged to develop creativity in all fields.

"In order to provide maximum educational opportunity for the student, all available resources must be utilized.

"Involvement in the educational process is a major responsibility of society. Therefore, a working interaction between community and professional staff must be established and maintained.

"Each student must be encouraged to accept responsibility to self, family, school, and community, which requires the development of self-discipline commensurate with maturity level.

"A student is an individual worthy of acceptance and respect. He or she must be afforded opportunities to understand and appreciate our diverse cultural heritage. He or she must be guided to interrelate constructively within our changing culture."

Elementary Continuation School Neither Practical Nor Feasible--Greenwood

Establishment of a continuation school for students who have been excluded from the Jefferson Elementary district schools is neither practical nor feasible at this time, according to Supt. Frank Greenwood.

Request for such a special facility was made by Mrs. Madge Bradstreet, a black parent who heads the Daly City Chapter of the NAACP.

Greenwood explained that while high school districts are mandated by law to maintain continuation schools, no such facilities are required of elementary districts.

He said that when a child is excluded from a school district under provisions of the Education Code, the child "is no longer the responsibility of the district, and when excluded is not entitled to district services or funds."

Greenwood said that in checking with nearby districts he found only Dr. Paul Nielsen of South San Francisco Unified District expressing an "interest."

Trustee Ed Tomasello explained that no pupil is expelled from school until his background and the circumstances are presented to and reviewed by the Board of Trustees.

He indicated a belief that to keep them in school might serve only to deprive them of more intense help, possibly from community social service agencies.

Mrs. Bradstreet continued this week to be upset with the superintendent's recommendations against providing a separate facility.

She wanted to know whether or not Greenwood went to see the principals or the Council of Jefferson P-TA's to discuss the matter.

Greenwood didn't reply.

"You don't know what's going on in your school district," Mrs. Bradstreet chided Greenwood.

She decried putting students "out on the street."

Greenwood had asserted that expulsion was done "on advice and counsel" — but reluctantly.

That home tutoring and other special education might be available was for children who cannot function in regular classroom situations was advanced by administrators.

In many instances, Greenwood explained, the expelled student has been excluded because he is dangerous to other pupils. Incorrigibles are turned over to the authorities much of the time, he said.

Mrs. Bradstreet was not pleased with the responses you received:

"We might not be heard tonight, but we will be election night," she challenged.

Concert At Jefferson Hi

The Jefferson High School's annual Spring Concert has been set for May 8, in the Daly City school's gymnasium, Dr. Robert Bush, the principal, announced today.

A spokesman for the music department added, "This year is a very special one for the students, because they are trying to raise funds for new uniforms."

The present uniforms are 12 years old, it was pointed out.

Admission to the concert will be $1, which will help slightly to move the students closer to the $7,000 needed.

In the meantime, donations to the uniform fund at Jeff are being accepted.

Girl Injured In San Bruno

A 17-year-old San Bruno girl was treated for minor injuries at Kaiser Hospital in Redwood City after the motorcycle she was riding collided with an auto on Merced Boulevard about 6:30 p.m. Friday night.

Jeannete Koolhoben, 3640 Sneath Lane was treated for lacerations of the right knee after her motorcycle hit a car driven by Don K. Potter, 42, of 281 Merced Drive, San Bruno.

Remarks About Minorities In Report Rapped

By WILL E. THOMAS
Post City Editor

A Spanish-speaking element of the North County is upset over remarks about the relationship of minorities to reading results in the Jefferson Elementary School District.

This concern — an anger, actually — has been expressed by Mel Tafoya, who was speaking as a member of the Tri City Forum's Representative Education Committee this week when he rapped the recent report to trustees by a Dr. Walter McHugh, a Hayward reading authority.

Tafoya said he didn't like what he understood to be an implication that McHugh linked all minorities, to some extent, to lessened reading achievment.

Tafoya said he was "disturbed" over the use of the term "bilingual" to indicate substandard readers, and was most emphatic in his opposition to Dr. McHugh's statement that " . . . You're in excellent shape, considering particularly that 22 per cent of the children in your district come from minority populations. . . ."

Tafoya wondered why there was no board opposition to the terminology used by McHugh — or opposition to what appeared in the press.

"We cannot but think the board and superintendent go along with the report," Tafoya declared.

Tafoya asserted that he was referring to the board's silence, which "infers you go along" not only with the report itself, but the articles appearing "in the news media."

(Area newspapers published stories on the McHugh report in March.) He did not think all bilingual students should be excluded from testing, as Dr. McHugh indicated, "because (being) bilingual does not make you a deprived person."

It adds, instead, to his culture, Tafoya said.

"If language is exploited, it can be a great assistance to the community, not a detriment," Tafoya pointed out.

Wording such as that used by Dr. McHugh is harmful, Tafoya said.

Superintendent Greenwood asserted Tafoya might not have gained the same implications from the report had he attended the meeting. Greenwood said he personally gained nothing from the report to indicate McHugh was trying to downgrade minorities.

Trustee Dorothy Adams agreed the term, bilingual, was improperly used, though she understood, she said, by his use that McHugh "intended to denote non-English" speaking students.

"A man of his learning should know better," claimed Tafoya, who told trustees that such statements "knock the props from under" children and parents alike.

"We want to sensitize you people to our problems."

Greenwood replied he was "sorry the impression was given that the administration is insensitive," explaining the district wants to "continue to work toward a healthy relationship" with minorities in the community.

McHugh had reported that district sixth grade test results indicated a sixth grade, second month ranking . . . right on target.

"On the basis of these test scores this district is doing just as well as the mean school district for the United States on which this test was normed.

"In other words, you're in excellent shape, considering particularly that 22 per cent of the children in your district come from minority populations.

"In addition, you have a very heavy population of transient children coming into and leaving the district."

McHugh, who is a professor at California State College at Hayward, also noted that all of "your consonant rules are taught and all of your vowel rules are taught in grade one where they used to be taught in grade two, and so, in terms of test scores, you are in excellent shape."

He added, "In fact, you are better than those considering that you have the two problems of transiency and sizeable minority population. I think that when you take these things into consideration, that you're doing a very good job, indeed."

Scholarship Association In South San Francisco To Review Applications

The South San Francisco Scholarship Association held its first meeting of 1970 recently.

Officers for the year included Marlowe Tyler, chairman; Duane Albro, vice-chairman; Lynn Bolenweck, recording secretary; Janet Hughes, corresponding secretary; Richard Walker, treasurer; and Louise Enberg, financial secretary.

The purpose of the Association is to collect funds from community organizations and individuals to award scholarship to deserving students from both El Camino and South San Francisco High Schools. The Association is comprised of members of the community as well as representatives of the high schools, various clubs and organizations.

Each year, in May, the Association reviews applications for scholarships and awards as many as there are funds available.

Donors and contributors include P-TA Coordinating Council, Soroptimist Club of North San Mateo County, South San Francisco Woman's Club, SSF Rotary, SSF Elks Lodge 2901, SSF Lions, SSF Kivanis, C-TA, El Camino High School Student Body, SSF High School Student Body, Memorial Funds, Winston Manor Community Association, SSF Association of Administrative Personnel, Miss Industrial City Pageant, Serra Highlands Pharmacy, Sunshine Gardens Women's Club and Alta Loma Student Body.

Chairman Marlowe Tyler reports in 1969 the Association awarded 10 scholarships to local high school students. He asks all residents for assistance for the 1970 scholarship awards.

Two Armed Robberies At Stores

Holdup artists are speeding up their operations if Friday night's two armed robberies — one in South San Francisco and the other in Burlingame — are any indiction of the trend.

In both instances Speedy 7-11 drive-in markets were hit. The holdups occurred within minutes of each other.

The first was reported in Burlingame at the Speedy market, 975 Bayshore Boulevard about 10:45 p.m.

Two men walked into the store, one armed with a small handgun, and fled with $69 from the register.

Eight minutes later, a lone gunman armed with a .45 calibre automatic walked into the Speedy Market at 635 El Camino Real, South San Francisco, demanded all the cash from owner Carol Skrifvars and fled with an estimated $200.

Descriptions of the suspects in both cases were hazy.

In Burlingame the gunmen had black hair and were between 20-25 years old, while in South San Francisco the Speedy Mart gunman was attired completely in brown, according to police reports.

Pickup Flips, Cartwright Boy Is Killed

James Gordon Cartwright, son of Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Cartwright of 71 Baldwin Avenue, Daly City, was killed in a traffic mishap in Quincy Sunday.

The 15-year-old youth was riding in the back of a pickup truck along with another boy, when the front wheels of the vehicle caught on the soft shoulder of the road, flipping the truck over on its top.

Cartwright was crushed beneath the truck, police said.

Funeral services for the victim are scheduled for 10 a.m. Wednesday at St. Martin's Episcopal Church, 777 Southgate Avenue, Daly City.

Interment is private and contributions to St. Martin's Episcopal Church are preferred.

James is survived by his mother and father; brothers, Matthew H. and Patrick J., and sister, Gail J. Drexler.

He was a member of the California Chapter of DeMolay, and a student at Westmoor High School.

Westmoor High Memorial Fund Nears $2,000 Mark

The Richard D. Hart Memorial Fund at Westmoor High School has reached a total of $1719.67 with an extra $100 anonymous donation to enable two scholarships to be given this year.

The $100 donation from a colleague is "to enable the Scholarship Fund to give a $50 scholarship to a Terra Nova High School senior and a Westmoor High School senior in June, 1970."

Hart, who died on March 27, 1970, had been in the Jefferson Union High School District for 13 years. He came to Westmoor as a mathematics teacher in 1957 and served in various capacities there until 1967, when he went to Terra Nova. This fall he returned to Westmoor as assistant principal — guidance.

Colleauges of Hart at Jefferson, Serramonte, Terra Nova, Thornton and Westmoor High Schools have contributed to the fund, as well as the clerical staff members and the JUHSD Credit Union, on whose board Hart served. Community members and the Sheriff's Department of San Mateo County have also sent donations. Mrs. Doris Lindfors, temporary fund drive chairman, emphasized that the drive is still continuing and earnestly solicits contributions, since the goal is $2500, so that the scholarship will be a continuing one. Contributions are tax deductible.

Terra Nova High School student body kicked off the student part of the drive with a $300 contribution and Westmoor followed with a pledge of $500 and an initial contribution of $225. They followed that contribution up with a $38.20 one and a $128.76 one, to bring their present total to $391.96.

Clubs at Westmoor have also contributed to the fund. The California Scholarship Federation contributed $50, the Horsemen's Association $10, Future Teachers Association $25 and Girls' Athletic Association $10. The NPL Pep Girl Competition, sponsored by the student government and held on April 24, gave its proceeds of $128.76 to the fund as part of the student body pledge.

S.S.F. Officer Is Drug Speaker

In one year, Sgt. James Swinfard, of the South San Francisco police department has presented 50 talks on drug abuse to local P-TAs, church groups, service clubs and the sixth grade class of every school except one.

Former Police Chief John Fabbri originally selected Detective Ted Silvas and Lt. James Keane for the program. Later, in order to release these men for other tasks the SSFPD Drug Abuse Program became Swinfard's special assignment.

Insisting he is not an expert on the subject, Swinfard claims, he has the same knowledge, no more or less as the average working policeman. He admits, "I read everything I can get my hands on concerning the problem." He has also taken special law enforcement courses.

Resembling a natty Madison Avenue junior executive, Sgt. Swinfard considers scientific articles on drugs his best source for reliable information. Scientists are "telling it like it is" rather than passing legal or moral opinions.

During his first few talks, Swinfard thought adult audiences were frightened and uninformed. Today, he believes the average adult audience is "more aware of the problem but still frightened and uninformed." Parents want to believe the drug problem is on the other side of town or at another school and their sons and daughters are not involved," the 14-year police force veteran noted.

Swinfard did not have figures readily available to report how many juveniles were taken into custody as drug users last year. With an impatient wave of his hand he declared, "Whether we have 5 or 500, the problem is here."

The questions parents frequently ask the law enforcement officer and father of two teens are:

What are the most common types of drugs used? And, what does the odor of burning marijuana smell like?

A native of St. Louis, Mo., Swinfard recalls burning dry leaves in the fall of every year. He compares the odor of marijuana with that boyhood memory. The odor of marijuana is also comparable to Manila hemp rope, since marijuana is a member of the hemp family. Teens, Swinfard disclosed, use patcholi oil constantly to eradicate the tell-tale scent.

As a parent, Swinfard encourages his son and daughter to discuss drugs. Quite often, he reports, he brings up the subject himself. Communication between child and parent is vital, Swinfard insists. When parents are unable to establish or maintain communication, Swinfard urges seeking professional help from a social worker or school psychiatrist.

"Surprisingly, young boys and girls must make a decision every day on whether or not to use drugs" Swinfard said.

Representatives Of Youth To Be Separate In Pacifica

Pacifica's City Council prefers that student representatives serving on the Parks, Beaches and Recreation Commission do not also serve on the soon-to-be established Youth Advisory Commission.

Pam Harrington, a Terra Nova High School student, said students generally "liked" the ordinance that would create the YAC, and that a joint meeting of Oceana and Terra Nova representatives had been held already.

Election of officers in the unit was expected within three weeks, Miss Harrington explained.

Councilmen asked students of the YAC to select their own collegiate representatives.

The city's leaders thought students of any area college could be involved—and potentially an officer and member of YAC—so long as they lived in Pacifica.

City Attorney John Sherman suggested the students go ahead with their organizational plans, even if the municipality has not completed legal work toward the ordinance.

"We'll catch up with them," he said.

Two Issues On Ballot In Pacifica

There'll be at least two items on Pacifica's July 28 special ballot.

The first, the original reason for the vote, is the Laguna Salada Elementary School District's need for a new trustee to replace Stanley Farber, now a councilman.

The second will be the City of Pacifica's request for citizen approval of sewer improvement bonds, to provide funds to combine the community's two sewage treatment plants.

Young People With Helping Hands Wanted

Young people with helping hands and awakening minds are welcomed to join two summer programs for teens at the Brotherhood Way Jewish Community Center.

Leadership-In-Training (LIT) positions will be open to 15 and 16 year olds who want to learn how to be camp counselors working with younger children. Counselor skills, workshops and discussions will supplment individual work and a certificate of recommendation will be awarded upon completion of the four-week program.

A service corps program called Youth Enacts Service (Y.E.S.) is also being offered this summer for teens, ages 14 and up Y.E.S. is in conjunction with the Volunteer Bureau

S.S.F. Pupils Study Major U.S. Problem

Major sociological problems in America are being dealt with by the seventh grade students at Saint Veronica's School in South San Francisco, it was revealed this past week.

Students studied and recently conducted a survey concerning pollution, crime, inflation, population, voting and the draft. The survey questionnaire was distributed locally, then tabulated. The results were then drawn up by the class.

One question under pollution Hazelwood Drive, commented, "We had one group on each topic which did research and made up questions, I was in the pollution group."

One question under pollution asked, "do you think marching and rioting and protesting will stop pollution? "Linda replied, "I myself would give it a now. We have no sure way of stopping pollution ourselves but we should all think."

She continued, "After all, we all caused it."

The survey revealed that of those questioned, 63 per cent would be willing to pay more taxes for pollution control with six per cent undecided.

Ninety-five per cent favored stronger legislation for pollution control and 88 per cent did not believe violence and protests would bring about increased results.

In other topics, 63 per cent did not favor abolishment of the death penalty for criminals. Seventy per cent replied negatively to the question "do you think there are ways to stop crime?"

Under inflation, 72 per cent felt, "loopholes should be abolished." Eighty - seven per cent believed the government should cut down on taxes.

The question, "Do you think the voting age should be lowered?" 49 per cent answered yes while 46 per cent said no. Five per cent were undecided.

Mrs. Michael Ruane, social studies teacher, commented on the students' response to the survey, "They were very impressed by the fact that so many people were willing to pay more taxes to stop pollution.

They decided that people under 21 years of age could also help by paying tax on candy and other items."

"Their biggest response was to the voting age. They believe 18-year-olds should be able to vote. Many of their brothers and sisters are in that age group and some are in Vietnam."

'Neighborhood' Sessions

Something New In Bruno

Something new in budget presentations will be tried by the City of San Bruno.

Councilmen intend to hold special budget review sessions in various areas of the city. The purpose is to give residents an opportunity to attend a budget session in their own neighborhood.

City Mgr. Gerard Vergeer told the councilmen he would have a budget "in a rough form" ready by the end of the week.

The councilmen then instructed Vergeer to set up a budget session for May 9 at 10 a.m. in the council chambers, and a second session for the same time on May 16 at Skyline College.

Both dates are Saturdays. Councilmen felt this day would give more people an opportunity to participate in the sessions.

Councilman Ted Long said he would ask the various homeowner groups to publicize the meetings to insure good attendance.

Christopher Menkin, manager of the Chamber of Commerce, also said the chamber would be willing to prepare necessary press releases concerning the neighborhood sessions.

The initial suggestion was made by Councilman Dick Griffith.

Actually Griffith's intention was to hold these meetings prior to actual drafting of the preliminary budget. But the departments have their requests in.

Vergeer did say he expected many changes.

New Breuner's For Serramonte

Two of the oldest pioneering names in the West — Breuner and Crocker — joined forces in a dual groundbreaking ceremoney to mark the start of construction for Breuner's 11th retail store, which will be the first development in Crocker Land Company's new Serramonte Plaza, a $15 million commercial park located opposite Serramonte Center in Daly City.

Handling a pair of powered rototillers for the symbolic earth-turning duty, were Breuner's president William R. Breuner, and M. Sherman Eubanks, vice president and general manager of Crocker Land Company, both of whom were ably assisted by Daly City's Vice-Mayor Francis P. Pacelli, and pretty "Miss Daly City" Caroline Rickenbacher.

The $2 million Breuner's Wayside Store, containing 120,000 square feet of space for retail furniture sales and service facilities, will be constructed on a six-acre site, and is scheduled for completion in mid-November of this year.

The building will be of early California casual rustic design, constructed of adobe-type slump block with natural exposed wood and large areas of glass. Sloping roof lines with expansive overhangs will provide approximately 800 feet of covered walkway encompassing the store's perimeter.

The one-story structure, designed by architects Haver, Nunn and Jensen, A.I.A., will also feature special antique outdoor lighting, parking for over 300 cars, and will be extensively landscaped. Contractor for building construction is Stolte Inc., of Oakland. Floyd A. Southard of Breuner's is real estate development coordinator for the project.

Breuner's Wayside sort which will serve more than one million residents throughout San Francisco and Northern San Mateo counties, will be the first building in Serramonte Plaza, a 27-acre site (part of the old Christian Ranch) slated for total development within the next three years.

RICHARD S. FRANKLIN of 538 Clarinada, Daly City, has been promoted to assistant vice president in the personnel administration department in Bank of America's San Francisco headquarters. At age 23, he becomes the youngest assistant vice president in the world's largest bank.

ROTOTILLING earth to break ground for new Breuner's store in Serramonte Plaza, Daly City, are (left) Sherman Eubanks vice president and general manager of Crocker Land Company; Caroline Rickenbacker, "Miss Daly City", and William R. Bruener, Breuner's president. Breuner's eleventh retail store is the first phase in the development of Serramonte Plaza, a $15 million commercial park opposite Serramonte Center.

Gemco To Serra Center

First building in the new Cabot, Cabot & Forbes Serra Center in Colma will be a 100,000 square-foot Gemco Membership department store, it has been announced by Lucky Stores, Inc., of which Gemco is a subsidiary.

Construction is to start almost immediately on the store, which will rise on a 9.18-acre section of the new center, near the intersection of Serramonte and Junipero Serra boulevards. Parking will be provided for about 1000 cars. It is expected that the store will be ready for operation in mid-October. It will be the twenty-third Gemco store in California and will employ about 200 persons.

E. P. Anderson, of Commercial Real Estate Service in San Francisco, handled the transaction.

THOMAS A. GALLAGHER Jr., 44, of Daly City, has been named vice president and manager of the installment credit division of Crocker-Citizen National Bank. His office is in San Francisco.

RICHARD LEE DAVIS of Daly City, a Prudential Insurance agent, recently observed his 20th anniversary with the firm.

Two Students Are Arrested

Two Serramonte High School students in Daly City were arrested April 28 and charged with the theft of a psychedelic light project made by fellow students.

The unusual light system was being displayed in a glass case inside a classroom at the school and the pair forced open the case and carted off the display, police said.

Everybody is looking for a bargain.

Here's one you can believe in.

LeSabre Custom

What makes the Buick LeSabres we sell such bargains?

We're dealing, for one thing. Spring is here and we're making up for lost time during those cold winter months when everybody stayed home by the fire.

We're going to make it real easy for you to get into a Buick and celebrate Spring.

But that's only part of what makes a bargain a bargain.

What about the car? Can you believe in it?

Every Buick is built with integrity.

You get things like a cooling system that should never overheat, even with air conditioning.

You get Buick's unique suspension system—AccuDrive—that makes this LeSabre one of the best handling Buicks ever.

You can even order a 350 cubic-inch, V8. With four-barrel carburetion. That delivers 285 horsepower. Yet runs on regular gas.

So, let's put it this way. If you want a bargain, we've got the ingredients. The car. And the deal.

Wouldn't you really rather have a Buick?

S.S.F. Women's Group Votes For Donations

The Women's Society of First Lutheran Church in South San Francisco recently voted to have one fourth of past rummage sale receipts go for the "His Too" program of the Lutheran Church-Missouri Synod, which will expand the facilities of the Good Shepherd Lutheran Home for the mentally retarded at Terra Bella, Cal. and also help in a similar way, the Bethesda Lutheran Home for the retarded in Watertown, Wisc.

Another portion of the receipts was voted to provide a scholarship for a theological student at the Alabama Lutheran Academy.

The women also announced their desire to underwrite the whole cost of the coming Vacation Bible School, so it will be a mission endeavor in the immediate area.

Mrs. C. Moe was elected to attend the Lutheran Women's Missionary League Convention in Fresno. Going as an alternate was Mrs. Trenton Ferro.

Also attending from First Lutheran as Mission Hospice Chairman for the LWML California and Nevada District was Mrs. David Raff.

Catholic Unit Will Discuss Past Festival

The Westlake Catholic Women will meet on Monday, May 11, following 8 p.m. devotions at Our Lady of Mercy Church. Mrs. Richard Galliani will preside at the final meeting of the term.

A report on the recent parish festival will be given by Mrs. Frank Lawson.

Plans for the installation breakfast on May 24 will be announced by Mrs. Eugene Bertorelli. Tickets for the breakfast may be purchased at the meeting.

The nominating committee will present its report. Members are Mrs. Philip Glebow, Mrs. Anthony Zidich, Mrs. Robert Cantwell, Mrs. Albert Modena, Mrs. Albert Fambrini and Mrs. John Cresalia.

Serramonte Happenings

An Industrial Arts Display By Pupils Of D.C. School

The Industrial Arts Department of Serramonte High School displayed items constructed by the arts students during the year.

The highlight of the display was a complete tool room built by Steve Wechsler, a junior who had never taken a woodshop class before. Steve added cabinets, panelling, shelves and electrical lighting as well as putting in a door, window, closet, bookcase, bulletin board, curtains and a tiled floor.

Music originated from a car stereo converted from a house unit filled the display room. Some students had made color organs, boxes which are injected with flashing Christmas lights to complete a brilliant light show, for the display.

Other exhibits shown included a bow and arrow case, bookends, a wooden bread board, bowls, salt and pepper shakers and gavels. Also on display was a four stroke engine which would operate at the touch of a button. A wooden podium built by Ken Thompson and Ira Fern was another product shown. Lamps constructed from polyash and walnut graced a long exhibition table. One interesting lamp consisted of a crystal ball design encompassed by a flashing white bulb.

The display was under the direct supervision of Steve Scheppler.

Serramonte has a unique program enabling students to make up their failing classes during their unstructured time.

Fifty students are now engaged in this program. Faculty members and student teachers from San Francisco State give their own time to help the student in the subject he or she needs to have improved. 2½ credits may be made up by a student in this program.

Two Bands For Teeners' Dancing

The Pacifica Teens will dance to the sounds of two groups, "The Seventh House" and "The Changing Times," May 9 from 8 to 11 p.m. in the Oceana High School multipurpose room.

There will be no teen drop-in for the next two Wednesday nights because of the Pacifica Spindrift Players production of the "Odd Couple." The drop-in program will resume on Wednesday night, May 20.

J-TEENS: The fine sounds of the "Seventh House" provided the music for the southern J-Teen dance at Linda Mar School May 3.

The northern J-Teeners will dance to the tic tock sounds of "The Changing Times" on Friday, from 7 to 9:30 p.m., in the Fairmont School Cafeteria.

The Pacific J-Teens — sponsored by the Park, Beach and Recreation Department — will journey to the sunny beaches of Santa Cruz on Saturday, May 16, from 10 to 5 p.m.

Fee for the trip will be $2.50. Deadline for signing up for the trip will be Monday, May 11, before 5 p.m. at City Hall or at the J-Teen Drop-in at Oddstad Park, between the hours of 7 and 9 p.m.

JAYCEE "Outstanding Young Man Of The Year" title in Pacifica has gone to young Pacifica Police Capt. Mel Nelson (left), who receives placque and congratulations from Congressman Paul N. (Pete) McCloskey at Jaycee function Saturday night.

TERRA NOVA HIGH TOPICS

By Anne Dryden

A CORPS OF QUALIFIED tutors has been organized by counselor Tom Mohr to assist students during the fourth quarter. Students especially proficient in English, science or math are volunteering their free periods to help students raise their last quarter grades.

Volunteers are still needed for all periods, and class credits will be awarded to students who contribute a certain number of hours tutoring.

NEXT YEAR'S spirit staff hopefuls performed before a panel of teachers and current spirit staffers last week in the auxiliary gym. Each of the enthusiastic young ladies attempted to convince the judges that they would make ideal cheerleaders or pom pon girls next year.

A variety of pig-tails, ribbons, culottes and brightly colored skirts were worn by the cheery but nervous group, and many long hours of practice proceeded the few minutes each girl had before the judges.

Those girls who passed the judges will do their stuff before the student body on May 8. The faculty panel judged the girls on their demonstration of skill, originality, poise and general enthusiasm.

LE PACINI, advisor of Terra Nova's two publications, Tiger Tales and Tiger Cub, and teacher of journalism, creative writing and English classes, and Post Sports Columnist, has been cashing in on his writing talents recently. Combining his interests in sports and writing, he has sold three articles to Baseball Digest and four to Boxing Illustrated. Last year he wrote a chapter on American sports for a British almanac on the United States, which will be published soon.

GET TICKETS now for the last two performances of "The Remarkable Mr. Pennypacker."

The comedy will be presented Friday and Saturday at 8 p.m. in the cafetorium. Tickets for the drama department's spring play, directed by David Campbell, are $1.50 for the first four rows and $1 for all other seats.

San Brunan Helps At Scout School

John T. Montgomery of San Bruno, long active in Boy Scouting circles, was one of three adult Scouts from the United States conducting a National Camp School for members of the Far Eastern Council, Boy Scouts of America, in Japan, through May 2.

The training team includes Montgomery, George Pett from the Volunteer Training Division of the National Scout Council and Richard Stanton, a volunteer Scouter from Chicago.

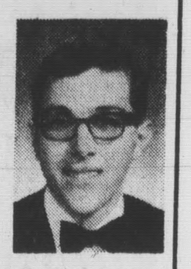
Montgomery has conducted region-wide Wood Badge training for adults and served last summer as an assistant camp chief at the National Boy Scout Jamboree at Faragut, Idaho.

CDA Schedules Thursday Session

Court Junipero Serra, Catholic Daughters of America, will elect officers at its meeting Thursday at 8 p.m. at St. Matthew's Auditorium, Ninth Avenue and El Camino Real. Helen Sayers, grand regent, will officiate and Lillian Dell Orfanello is chairman of the evening.

Vice Regent Irene Bank will conduct the May 21 meeting in the absence of the grand regent who will be at the state CDA biennial convention in Fresno. That session will also start at 8 p.m. at St. Matthew's Auditorium.

The Jefferson Scene



By RILEY ATKINS

THE AMERICAN CANCER SOCIETY'S Volunteer month of April has come to a close in Daly City, and Jefferson High School will receive a plaque for chalking up the most manhours in the door to door campaign.

Every Saturday during the month of April, students from Jeff passed out information regarding cancer's seven warning signals. They were competing with students from Westmoor and Serramonte High Schools. The ten students who have the most total man hours wil each receive two deluxe dinners at Toto's Restaurant. Congratulations to all the volunteers on a job well don!!

PORTIA JACKSON, head varsity cheerleader, exchanged her blue and gold uniform for a white ball gown as she bowed at the twenty-second Annual Cotillion Ball on April 25.

The gala was at the Sheraton-Palance Hotel, and Miss Jackson was presented by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Alson E. Jackson.

Portia has been a very active young lady at Jefferson. She has served as an officer of her class, Junior Varsity Cheerleader and now is head varsity cheerleader. She has also been a member of Model Senate, the Pow - Wow Club and the Human Relations Committee. Portia plans to continue her education beyond high school, attending Pitzer College in Claremont.

HEAR YE! HEAR YE! The chess men and women from Jefferson have won their league championship with the help of Jim Lemke, Howard Hatchett, Fred Rhian, and Dan Gong taking the four top boards. The bottom three boards were played by Russ Toy, Ken Haxton, Jim Dahlstrom, Lee Cleveland, and Nicholas Lisiukoff.

The first league game against Half Moon Bay was a 3½ - 3½ tie. The next match saw the chessmen beat us 4-3,but the final match saw the Jefferson team victorious. Jefferson defeated El Camono in every match, 7-0, 5-0, 5-0. Jefferson will now enter the tournament on May 23 that will determine which school is number ne in the Bay Area.

JEFFERSON'S 11TH ANNUAL Model Senate has come to a close but not before receiving much praise as the best Senate in Jeff's history. Besides the normal amount of legislation that was debated, an investigation into the busing issue was held. Teachers from Jeff portrayed the roles of witnesses, pro and con this educational issue.

The highlight of the day, no doubt, was the visit of "Dr. Max Rafferty," played by Don Behm, a math teacher at Jeff. The entire week was a great success and a tribute to the hard work of all of the students who participated

A circus barker, sideshow and a grand parade highlighted the recent Cub Scout Pack 291 meeting.

Mrs. Norma Mifsud's Den 3 led the parade with their dancing elephant, two-headed man, bearded lady, etc. Committee Chairman Robert Blazer presented prizes to winners of the recent candy sale.

First prize, a certificate for $25, was presented to Kenneth Mifsud; second prize, a $15 certificate, to Eirk Nyberg, and third prize, a $10 certificate to John Funghi.

Boys of Den 3 sold a record 37 cases and will be taken to lunch for their prize.

Transistor radios were presented to each Den's highest seller as follows: Den 1, Ronald Doane; Den 2, Robert Warren; Den 3, Kenneth Mifsud; Den 4, Patrick Cassano; Den 5, John Funghi; Webelos Den 1, Roy and Steve Mifsud, duplicate prizes for a tie; and Weblos Den 2, James Rodrick. Announcement was made that due to the success of the candy sale the pack was able to pay for the boys' rechartering and insurance for the year.

1969 Summer activity Awards were presented to Dens 1, 2, 5 and Webelos. New Cub Scouts Fred Douglas and James Stoyko were welcomed by Cubmaster Robert Hermone in a candlelit ceremony.

Awards were then presented to Cub Scouts as follows: Bear Books, Tony DeCesare and Derek Wiley; Brian Kenny, six silver arrows, gold arrow and wolf badge; Danny Latham, Ronnie Doane, Bobby Warren, John Cianciolo, silver arrows; John Casey and Eric Hilario, denner bars; and Mike Martin, assistant denner bars.

Webelos leaders Laary Casey and Lonzo Warren welcomed four Cub Scouts into their Webelos and presented John Funghi, Eddie Bartoli, Paul Magallanes and Mike Seda with their Webelos colors, scarves, hats, books and scarf rings. Webelos badges were presented by Leader Casey to: Albert Albiani, Geologist; Jack Meyer, Scholarship; Mike Casey, Scholarship; and Mike Carter, Geologist, Outdoorsman and Travelers.

Webelos leaders Larry Casey then, acting in his dual capacity as Assistant Scoutmaster, Boy Scout Troop 291, officially welcomed Michael Carter and Tom Buie to the troop. Mike and Tom were presented with their Webelos Arrow of Light Awards by Leader Casey, signifying completion of the requirements for a Tenderfoot Scout.

Mrs. Vera Warren's Den 2, with all den parents present, received the evening's attendance award. Mrs. Joanne Doane's Den 1 presented a circus skit which climaxed the evening.

Honors To D.C. Camp Fire Girls–Activities Varied

The Lola Camp Fire Group 7-42 have earned honors, for several girl-sized, do-it-yourself activities.

The seven girls received their beads in a ceremony held a few months ago.

The beads are for something new and interesting learned, a good habit formed or a service given.

Each lit the candle of the craft she choose to represent and recite on.

Angela Cocoles spoke on home, Karil Bangs on creative arts, Debbie Schillert on outdoors, Connie White on sports and games, Michelle Reese on business, Laura Grimes on science, and Judy Regan on citizenship. Congratulations were extended by their guardians, Mrs. Paul Cocoles and Mrs. Walter White. Their mothers also were present for this colorful and solemn ceremony.

The Lola girls also held a songfest at Ponderosa school, to which their sister groups were invited. Proving the point that Camp Fire has friends all over the country, the guitarists were Marcia Williams, from Terre Haute, Indiana and Mary Karkins from Pleasant Hills, Calif.

Song leaders were Kathy Kinkel from Limon, Colorado and Donna White from S.S.F.

Donna is our local girl who previously attended Avalon, Southwood and S.S.F. High School. The four attend Callison College at the university of Pacific at Stockton, and each claims to have been a Camp Fire Girl or Girl Scout. Next fall they will widen their horizons and travel abroad and study at Bangalore, India.

The Lola's have followed the Camp Fire trail to the rank of Trail Seeker. The program is carried out in small groups so that girls learn to be self-reliant and cooperative, your citizens now, they prepare for responsibilities as wives, mothers and careerists in tomorrow's world. At weekly meetings they plan and participate in work and play.

These fourth graders are currently enrolled in ice skating, busy having fun in learning to master this sport.

Registrations for Day Camp are already in progress. Camp Caniya is another camp site where many will be attending.

DC Troop 248 Honors New Eagle Scouts

Edward Anderson and Jeffrey Kaus received their Eagle badges of rank during the Eagle Court of Honor held by Boy Scout Troop 248 at the Westlake Park Clubhouse.

Senior Patrol Leader Kevin White called to order the Court of Honor, with presentation of the colors and pledge of allegiance, and Troop Bugler John Schoolcraft sounded "To The Colors."

Scouts of Troop 248 participated in an impressive candle lit ceremony highlighting the Scout Oath and Law and the Scout.

Assistant Senior Patrol Leader Craig Tronoff outlined the qualifications of an Eagle Scout. Scribe Jeff Colvin read the accomplishments and service record of the two Scouts honored.

John Gibson, Institutional Representative and Treasurer of the Westlake Subdivisions Improvement Association, made the Eagle award presentation. Following the presentation Eagle Scouts Anderson and Kaus pinned miniature badges of their rank on their mothers.

Mrs. Fred Anderson and Mr. and Mrs. John Kaus were present to see their grandsons awarded their Eagle badges.

J. M. Renfrow, nine year veteran Scoutmaster of Troop 248, was presented with a gift of appreciation by Eagle Scouts Anderson and Kaus.

PACIFICA Federated Women's Club members (left to right) Marlys Matheus, past president, and Grace Cloud reflect on the President's Award given to club President Roberta Lundy by the Golden Gate District Clubs for the Pacifica group's project, "Vietnam Venture," this year. The club also received ten other awards which are strung out around the members. It was the second time in six years that the smallish Coastside women's group had received the president's citation. Edna MacDonald won it for the club in 1964.

Friends Of D.C. Library Get Ready For Book Fair

The Friends of the Daly City Library are very busy these days pricing and sorting donations of books and records for their annual Book Fair, May 9, at the Westlake Shopping Center Mall.

The public had been asked by Mrs. William George, president of the Friends, to assist in the community project by taking unwanted but usable books to collection centers set up by the Friends.

The Friends were founded in 1956 and incorporated in 1958 as a non-profit organization of residents with the purpose of fostering closer relations between the Daly City Library and the citizens of Daly City.

They participate in the development of a program for the extension and improvement of Library services and resources. One of their most popular projects is the well attended series of monthly reviews which they sponsor at the library. All of their funds are used in some way to benefit the library and to promote knowledge of the functions, resources, services and needs of the library.

A large portion of the profit from the Book Fair will be used to purchase their annual gift to the Library.

Past gifts have included books of large print for the visually handicapped and the starting albums of a record collection for the library.

The public will have the opportunity to browse and purchase reasonably priced fiction, paperbacks, textbooks, children's volumes, reference magazines and records.

Members of the Friends will man the booths.

MEMBERS of the Friends of the Daly City Library have been busy each Tuesday morning pricing and sorting box-loads of books to be offered at organization's Book Fair May 9 at Westlake Shopping Center.

Barbershoppers Plan Auditions At Stonestown

North County men who like to sing are invited to participate in an "Auditions for Admissions" event scheduled for the Red Chimney restaurant in the Stonestown Shopping Center, 19th Avenue at Winston Drive in San Francisco, at 8 p.m. May 15.

The auditions are being held by the San Francisco (Cable Car) chapter of the Society for the Preservation and Encouragement of Barber Shop Quartet Singing in America.

Men who have been curious about what barbershop harmony is, and what it's like to sing this type of music, are encouraged to take part.

"No prior knowledge of barbershop harmony singing is needed, and it's not necessary that a man know how to read music," according to Wally DeWaal, president of the chapter.

The chapter, which meets regularly every Tuesday evening in Lowell High School, has a membership of approximately 40 men, but has a current need for filling in certain of the parts for better balance in the chorus. Also, new quartets will be formed later this year from chapter members.

San Bruno Is First Home For The William Emhoffs

Making their first home in San Bruno are just wed Mr. and Mrs. William Frank Emhoff. The couple exchanged vows at Bethel Lutheran Church in San Francisco with the Rev. Kenneth B. Bauer officiating.

The former Bonnie Susan Pappas, the bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alex Pappas of San Francisco and the sister of Deborah, Ricky and David Pappas and Mrs. Linda Prud'homme.

Linda served as her sister's matron of honor while bridesmaids duties were performed by Deborah Pappas, Barbara Martin, Susan Emhoff, and Debra Wiedinmyer. Denise Gonzales was flower girl and Robert Gonzales acted as ring bearer.

William, who is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank William Emhoff of San Mateo, chose George Starmer for his best man. Ushers were Jim Smith, Gary Barner, Lee Ware and Maurice Parker.

The new Mrs. Emhoff attended Balboa High School in San Francisco and her husband graduated from San Mateo High School.

THE MARQUEE

Much To Learn And Like In '1776'

A mixture of unlikely innovations has been turned into one of the liveliest and most satisfying shows the West Coast has been privileged to see.

"1776" is not a musical, per se, but a play with music, each complementing the other. It has the uniquely unsentimental theme of a nearly all male cast of historiial figures (white wigs and all) signing the Declaration of Independence and a minimum of dancing. The songs are so well integrated to the action that they seem part of the dialogue, almost background accompaniment to a scene.

Put them all together, in top notch fashion, as can be seen nightly at the Curran Theater and the Civic Light Opera has done its subscribers and all those smart enough to buy a ticket, a rousing good turn. No Broadway hit could have greater charm for a season opener than the national road company of a success still running in New York since March 1969.

ALL THE ACTORS HAVE TO SING; choreographer Onna White has taught them more than heel, toe, tap, tap, tap since they move with the grace and spirit of experienced dancers and event the clapboard Philadelphia meeting house settings by Jo Mielziner are worth a standing ovation. And there isn't a crystal chandelier, a sweeping staircase or satin drape in sight

Aside from its engaging songs and lyrics by Sherman Edwards and a ribald, informative book by Peter Stone, Edwin Lester's flawless presentation in San Francisco has blown the dust of ages from the dull data of our history lessons and breathed life, love and heroism into the birth of our country.

The author has bent facts only enough to fit into a theatrical frame, not enough to cause traumas among the purists. There were more than 23 signers, but poetic license and equity salaries notwithstanding, they have worked from documents to bring us a ingratiating picture of the personalities and key events that pitched the Continental Congress ino a fervor for freedom from English tyranny.

They're depicted as young men, not heroes, following conscience rather than etching themselves a prominent page in history. Yet they knew posterity would note their efforts. George Washington's pessimistic dispatches are read in counterpoint (he never appears, being indisposed with having to fight 25,000 English troops with only 5,000 sick and tired soldiers) to the brash, often brawling curses and entrities of John Adams, Benjamin Franklin and John Dickinson.

The suspense of watching state by state be counted into the revolutionary break with English rule mounts with exacting tension. Debates, rebuttals, cajoling, angry accusations, compromises and bribery all are employed. The final scene is both exciting and dramatically eloquent, igniting a surge of patriotism from every corner of the theater.

REX EVERHART BRINGS INTELLECTUALISM and wit into the dynamic political foray as the gout suffering Franklin. Patrick Bedford makes a triumphant stand for idealism as the fanatical Bostonian John Adams, who is thoroughly "obnoxious and disliked" by his constituents. Gary Oakes assays the charm and joviality of the Virginia aristocrat Richard Henry Lee and sings of his namesake's glory in a rousing song.

But the revealing character of Thomas Jefferson, given a youthful, virile stance by Jon Cypher is almost a scene stealer as we see him as human, vulnerable and reluctant to write the document because he's been separated from his wife for six months and wants to go home.

There is so much to learn and like in "1776" it bears seeing and hearing rather than talking about. The engaging humor and rebellious spirit (often forgotten in the condemnation of current revolutionary tactics) are cause for celebration in forthcoming weeks.

Annual Music Progam To Be Presented On Saturday

A soprano, violist and pianist will provide the musical entertainment Saturday when the Palo Alto Alumnae Chapter of Mu Phi Epsilon, international professional music sorority, stages its annual scholarship luncheon musicale.

Open to the public, the affair will take place at 12:30 p.m. at Pieracci's Restaurant, Second and San Antonio Road, Los Altos.

Presenting the musical program will be violist Marywayne Bush, soprano Catherine Huntsigner, and pianist Lynn McConahey. Misses Bush and Huntsinger, who attend Fresno State College and San Jose State College respectively, are both winners of last year's scholarships. Miss McConahey is the recipient of the sorority's scholarship this year.

LYNN McCONAHEY
Scholarship Recipient

A Junior at San Jose State College, Lynn began studying piano at the age of 5 in San Francisco and has given concerts throughout the Bay Area, as well as on radio and television. She has also merited several scholarships for her outstanding work. Now studying with Aiko Onishi, she plans to be a concert pianist.

Since the chapter's founding in 1955, scholarships have been presented each year to Mu Phi Epsilon collegiate members attending San Francisco State College, San Jose State College, California State College at Hayward, and the College of Holy Names in Oakland. The money is used to further the student's musical study, notes Mrs. Rudolph Helin of Woodside, Chapter President.

MRS. CAL DUNOW and Mrs. Joseph Fitzgerald of the Mary's Help Hospital Guild admire view of Daly City and San Francisco from the tenth floor of hospital. The women are members of the Guild's Fuchsia Ball committee, preparing for May 16 event at Fairmont Hotel. Proceeds from the traditional spring event will benefit coronary care unit, to be located on tenth floor. Mrs. Fitzgerald or Mrs. Paul Neagle may be contacted for reservations.

Garden Village P-TA Elects New Staff

Garden Village Parent-Teacher Association has announced its new officers for the 1970-71 year.

Mrs. Pat Gamberg will turn over her gavel to Mrs. Nancy Thomas.

Assisting Mrs. Thomas will be Glen Forcum, principal and honorary vice president; Mrs. Robert Brizuela, vice president; Mrs. George Condon, recording secretary; Mrs. Lloyd Eagleton, corresponding secretary; Mrs. Robert Coloretti, treasurer; Mrs. Bert Gamberg, financial secretary; Mrs. Michael Ramiriz, historian; Mrs. Glen Ullom, parliamentarian.

Doug McPherson will be auditor.

Mrs. Rex Scribner will be room-mother representative; Mrs. Ray Farnsworth, ways and means; Mrs. Phillip Daniels, budget and finance.

Mrs. John Bologna and Mrs. Dan Powell will handle the Garden Village teachers' - aide program.

Chief Ray Savage of the Broadmoor Police Department will be chairman of safety and juvenile.

The new board members already are working on next year's programs.

Friday at 1:30 P.M., on the lower playground, the teachers and students will present their annual May Day Festival.

"This is a standing traditional program at the school, one which many parents and relatives look forward to and deeply appreciate all the extra work by the teachers to make it a successful event," according to Mrs. Ray Farnsworth, May Day chairman.

Another date to remember is May 28, when the Garden Village Glee Club, directed by Paul Carpenter, will present its Spring Festival.

Catholic Women Planning Meet

The final quarterly conference of the Archdiocesan Council of Cathoic Women will commence Saturday at the Dominican College in San Rafael. Registration will be at 9 a.m. in Guzman Hall.

Taking part in the conference will be the San Mateo, San Clara, San Francisco and Marin Councils.

Mrs. Edward Pasqual, president, will preside at the business meeting and conduct the election of officers.

"Alcoholism, Everybody's Problem" will be the subject of the address to be given at the morning meeting by Mrs. Florette White Pomeroy, executive director of the National council on Alcoholism.

BRIGHT LIGHTS BY LLOYD JOHNSON ★

Enjoy Dining Out On Mother's Day May 10th

Mother's Day, one of the most memorable days of the year, will see record-breaking crowds dining out. The "first lady of the home" will be shown an extra amount of love — expressed with flowers, gifts and family reunions. Restaurants appearing on Bright Lights pages have given much thought to special menus for mothers, both young and young-in-heart. To add to the festivities, many restaurants, hotels and clubs are also featuring lounge entertainment to be enjoyed before or after dining. In order to avoid a lengthy table wait, make breakfast, brunch or dinner reservations NOW.

The Costa Brava presented Freddie Paris, one of San Francisco's favorite singers, for one night only, Sunday evening. The RCA recording star, who has appeared in Australia's top hotels and clubs and on national television, was onstage in the cocktail lounge at 8 p.m. . . . Cliff Arquette, known to TV and movie fans as Charley Weaver, thrilled ringsiders at Finocchio's spa of female impersonators with funny quips when introduced by Lucian, the "Male Sophie Tucker . . . Fun - maker. Golden Tours, is in its third big year of offering its very successful Giant Bonus vacation which includes $5 cash and $2 food and drink. Buses leave Ed's Smoke Shop Monday through Saturday. . . . The regular menu of beef, seafood and Continental dishes will be offered on Mother's Day at the Shirt Tail in Palto Alto from 2 p.m. to 11 p.m. Treat your best gal, Mom, to Gazpacho "Andalouse," the chilled Spanish soup, followed with Veal Cutlet Parmigiano, with Mateus Rose wine from Portugal. . . . Phil Lehr will have an extra - special Mother's Day treat for families dining at his elegant Steakery in downtown San Francisco. It's Beef Wellington, a gourmet steak dish that's available for parties of one, ten or more . . . Mother's Day dinner at the Villa Chartier and The Lanai will be festive. Relish, soup, salad, entree, dessert and beverage are included in the well-portioned dinners served at the Villa Chartier from $4.45. In Owner Emerson Murfee's own words, "How about that!"

The big Polenta feed at Bruno's the other evening had the Third Avenue restaurant wall-to-wall with happy diners, who came by to wish likable Bruno Fava well, and to enjoy a delicious dinner as a guest of the house. Although not open on Sundays, Bruno's restaurant and lounge bustles with activity during luncheon and dinner all through the week (Monday through Saturday) . . . Sonia Caffejian, the shapely dancer and co-owner at the Balkan Village, is now performing her voluptuous Armenian dances Tuesdays through Saturdays. She performs in beautiful imported gowns and jewelry. Sonia gives free lessons in Greek dancing every Wednesday evening . . . Steak Diane will be one of the flaming Continental dishes served Mother's Day at L'Auberge in Atherton. Desserts such as Cherries Jubilee or Crepes Suzette are also festive attractions. Champagnes and rare wines to complement any meal . . . Mom will feel as pampered as a princess if you treat her to a Mother's Day Buffet in the luxurious Crystal Room at Executive House-Thunderbolt Hotel, Millbrae. Roast Turkey, Roast Top Sirloin of Beef and Beef Stroganoff, with a variety of salads, cold cuts and a special Mother's Day dessert. Phone early for reservations.

When it comes to catering any party function, food specialists Dave Rasmussen, Bill Mills and Walter Gum of The Shadows of San Mateo are in a league of their own. As evidence that your reputation goes before you, The Shadows crew is presently catering breakfast and luncheon to the movie crew filming "The Fools," starring Jason Robards and Katherine Ross, on location in San Francisco. Considering that The Shadows Catering of San Mateo was selected from the entire Bay Area, which lists many such agencies, is it any wonder that we on the local scene are very proud of this professional restaurant team. Another Shadows catering feat: They barbecued a whole pig and delivered it to the St. Francis Hotel for a recent Jim Beam party . . . Young Life Benefit Show, "Youth of America-On Stage," featuring special guest star Tennessee Ernie Ford and a cast of 85 super-talented yong people, which includes a 41-piece orchestra and 30-member choral group, will appear in concert for one night only, Saturday, May 9, at College of San Mateo. There are two shows only, 7 p.m. and 9 p.m. Give mom a real treat and take her to see this tremendous extravaganza. For tickets and information phone 341-1609 or 345-6355.

Black Angus Steak House Makes Successful Debut

Stuart Anderson, rancher and founder of the Black Angus Steak House (not related to any restaurant of similar name), arrived in San Mateo from Washington to oversee the gala opening of the newest link in his chain of restaurants. Anderson's secret to successful low-cost steak dinners begins on the hoof on his Black Angus Cattle Ranch in Ellensburg, Washington. Featuring one-price lunches at $1.75 and one-price dinners at $3.95. After enjoying your evening meal, drop by the lounge for a cocktail and listen to Johnny Earl play a few of your favorite tunes at the pianobar. . . . If a contest is ever staged for exhibiting the finest collection of caricatures in town, Bruno's in San Francisco's Mission would probably run off with all laurels. Walls of the bar and dining room are decorated with framed pixes of the town's V.P.'s dating back to Jimmy Rolph . . . Should you drop into Frank Torres' Beach restaurant in Montara, try one of the South American specialties of Frank and Fannie Torres. We highly recommend the Escabeche, which is cooked pickled fish, Peruvian style. . . .

S. Anderson

Antonio Galante, great nephew of the late movie idol, Rudolph Valentino, will join the Silver Anniversary of Boys' Towns of Italy celebration at the annual Ball of the Year, Saturday, May 9, in the Fairmont Hotel. Singer Galante, a popular television and movie star in Italy, has toured throughout the world and given command performances for the Royal family of Greece. Tickets are avaiable to the public by writing Northern California Headquarters, Boys' Towns of Italy, 1301 Battery Street . . . Record breaking Mother's Day crowds are expected to dine at Nick Gust's now-famous restaurants — The Moonraker, Nick's, and the Papagayo Room, located on the shores of the Pacific in Rockaway Beach. If this is your intention, too, MAKE RESERVATIONS NOW . . . For the man who has everything, what could be better than a hotel that offers everything—and Bright Lights means the Villa Hotel, where guests are treated to every facility of comfort for the express purpose to pamper. Be it room service, or breakfast, lunch and dinner served in the fireplace section called "Upper Level," or in the lively 24 - hour Villa Coffee House, the Villa tradition of excellent quality and service prevails. Luncheon and dinner service is full course—From soup and salad to dessert and beverage—all from $2.45 up, with each day of the week presenting a Daily Special. There's even a special menu for children (under 12) priced from $1.75. And it's all prepared under the professional eye of chef de cuisine Karl Faigle and his "roundsman," Andre Lehre.

Bill Griffin, newly appointed manager of the Burlingame Hyatt House, lays claim to being the youngest general manager in the Hyatt chain. Griffin, age 28, started his working career in the Hyatt Corporation in Chicago as a bell-man while going to college, and worked his way up to the position of assistant to Skip Friend, Executive Vice President of Hyatt Corporation . . . All this in just six years . . . Is operatic entertainment your cup of tea? Then head for the unlikely location of North Beach in San Francisco for a sampling of some of the finest professional and amateur talent anywhere in the Bay Area. The Bocce Ball is the name of the club, and you won't be disappointed at the high class of entertainment currently being offered . .. There's a little face lifting going on at Yolanda's Terminal Cafe in South City. A new coat of paint and a lower ceiling in the banquet room upstairs is part of the renovation . . . Movie and TV star Gail Storm dined at Doros in San Francisco recently as a guest of the James Martins. He's president of the Massachusetts Mutual Life Insurance Co. Gail told Don Dianda his food was better than any in Hollywood.

Frank LaPierre

Post-Times Writer

WHEN OUR KIDS RIOT we sure pay attention, fast.

But when kids want to work during their summer vacations, so they can make a little pocket money to go to camp or buy some decent clothes, no one seems to care.

And a pity it is.

A group of Daly City citizens has been meeting for years trying to get jobs for kids, especially those from low income families. But this group is too small and the task of securing jobs is getting too big.

If you can't make the next meeting at Lyons' Restaurant on Alemany Avenue in Daly City next May 28, just send a letter to Marion Goodwin at the Daly City Information and Referral Center, with a pledge for a summer youth job or (here it comes, folks) a few bucks that can be used to employ a youth for a while. It all helps.

AND WHILE 'VE'RE ON THE SUBJECT — We wonder how much the kids appreciate the efforts being expended on their behalf? Let's have a "Be Nice to Adults and People Week" all you kids out there. Best way to celebrate this local holiday is to throw softer rocks at your parents.

DIDJA KNOW DEPT. — That Highway Patrolmen on motorcycles wear blue bow ties instead of regular neckties? Keeps the thing from blowing in their faces . . . That plans are underway to make Cypress Hills Golf Course into a par 70 standard-sized course with the addition of two new fairways (now a quarry-dumpsite east of the tenth fairway) . . . That Westlake Shopping Center has a new electronic flashing sign that can change its message at the flick of a switch — if they ever get it working.

IMAGINE THAT? Retired Daly City councilman Edward J. Dennis' hobbies are listed as "Golf and making friends with people." After watching him on the golf course, Broadmoor police chief Ray Savage remarked, "I sure hope he makes friends with people better than he putts." To be sure, Edward has many friends, but his favorite saying is: "A person doesn't need a lot of friends — as long as they are good friends."

HOW IN THE WORLD can South City's councilman Frank Bertucelli be a candidate for the BARTD extension post vacated by the defeat of former San Bruno councilman Karney Barberian in the recent election?

Bertucelli has already informed the Airport Study Control Board (BARTD, San Francisco, San Mateo, et al) that if, and when, a rail extension goes through South City it must be underground. Matter-of-fact he's said it twice at two different meetings he wasn't invited to.

The battle for the seat is between Daly City's Frank Pacelli, who maintains a "let's take a look at the thing" attitude, and Bertucelli who favors, rather insists on, an underground system through the picturesque "Industrial City."

OPEN HOUSE IN D.C. — All fire stations in Daly City will sponsor an Open House on May 9, between 9 a.m. and 4 p.m. That happens to be "Fire Service Recognition Day." But some fire eaters are claiming the day after the end of the annual budget talks as "Recognition Day." If they get what they want then they figure they will be "recognized" if they don't. . . .

SIGN PROBLEMS — What to do with those old campaign signs might have been answered by Mayor Bud Lycett down Daly City way. He turned them all over to Jack Murray who happens to be running for county supervisor against incumbent Gerald Day. Frank Toto Spadarella, a candidate in the Assembly Primary, is using council candidate Magnani signs . . . And while we're on this kick, that sign on the Spadarella Headquarters at the corner of Junipero Serra Boulevard and Knowles Avenue is mighty hard to read, mighty hard.

CHALK ONE UP — Charles Aubuchon is leaving is temporary traffic control job in San Bruno to join a regular police force — either in Bruno or elsewhere. That's not the story. Here 'tis. Seems Aubuchon takes his job seriously, much to the chagrin of local merchants who at first welcomed him with open arms and now ant him to slow down.

The officer, in the execution of his duties, has done everything from mark tires with chalk to placing small pebbles on each car tire to see if they have moved within the alloted time period. Those who don't feel the might of Aubuchon's sharp pencil racing across a traffic tag.

Some merchants along San Mateo Avenue became so incensed over this upholding of the law they took their beef to the council which discussed it at great length (as they do everything that is brought before them by incensed merchants).

After hearing from Police Chief Cunningham on what a great job the traffic officer was doing the council praised him for doing his duty.

TO THAT HIT AND RUN driver who killed young Robert Mark Mick on Skyline Highway Saturday we can only hope he or she has the intestinal fortitude to come forward. Not that such an act will bring back the boy, who would have been 14 years old Thursday, but to take whatever punishment is coming. Otherwise, we would like to wish the responsible party a rough ride to a place our publisher won't allow us to mention in print.

SUMMER IS FINALLY HERE and the fog is creeping in on little cat's paws every morning and evening. For People's sake drive carefully. That's an awful lot of metal you're controlling with that right foot.

Slow down and live a little.

Vallemar Sixth Graders Reach Out To World

The sixth grade pupils of Mrs. Blance Striker at Vallemar School have been busy this school year writing letters to important people all over the world.

Writing some 96 letters requesting a return letter autographed picture, they received 37 replies. Within the envelopes were not only pictures, but brochures and stories about various countries.

It was a long wait after the letters were mailed—but one by one the correspondence came trickling in. From Germany, Jordan, Turkey, Spain, Korea and Canada; from presidents, princes and generals they came.

Here are the replies:

Chip Bohlander—Water Resources Board, Sacramento; The president of Peru; Glen T. Seaborg, Atomic Energy Commission; Generalissimo Francisco Franco, Spain. Lisa Marchad—Chancellor Willy Brandt, Bonn Germany; S. I. Hayakawa, San Francisco State College; N.A.S.A. Space Center, Houston, Tex. Karen Williams—Miss Wolf, director San Francisco Port Authority. Shirley Venneri—King Hussein of Jordan. Mike Ryan—Queen Elizabeth of Great Britain; George Romney, Sec. Housing, Washington, D.C.; Prince Souvanna Phouma, Vientianne, Laos.

Jeanette Barrows—Princess Margaret of Great Britain. Pat Beattie—President V. V. Giri of India; President Sulhi Dislioghi of Ankara, Turkey; King Faisal of Saudi Arabia. Lee Castillo—Mrs. Diane Feinstein, Pres. San Francisco Board of Supervisors. Renee Dutton — President Richard Nixon, Washington, D.C., U.S.A.; The Royal Canadian Mounted Police, Regina, Canada; Judge Hufstedler (a woman), Los Angeles Dist. Court of Appeals, California. Roland Richardson—Pope Paul VI, The Vatican, Rome, Italy; General Ghung Hee Park, president of South Korea. Jerry Wellemeyer—Governor General Roland Michener, Ottawa, Canada; Julie Featherstone—Ex-president Harry S. Truman, Independence, Missouri. Karen Keeter—Also to Roland Michener, Governor General of Canada.

Betty Hayes—Dean Martin, Hollywood. Elizabeth Langensand—President Urho Kekkonen of Finland; Prime Minister Pierre Trudeau of Canada. Lynne Frenna—President Eamon De Calera, Ireland. Michelle Morrow—Prince Charles of Great Britain (Prince of Wales). Michelle Rasmussen—resident Guiseppi Saragget of Italy; Senator Edmund Muskie (Maine), Washington, D.C.

Richard Harlan—President Chaing Kai Shek, Taipei, Raiwan; Joe Hall—King Franz Joseph II of Liechtenstein; Governor Ronald Reagan of California. Gary Hanson—Chairman of Expo 70, Osaka, Japan, Julia Dennis—President Georges Pompidou of France; President Zalman Shazar of Israel. Marvin Stewart—Ex-president Lyndon B. Johnson, Austin, Texas.

THE LONG PERIOD of waiting days, weeks and even months in some cases for their replies to start coming in seemed hard at first. Then, the letters started to arrive! To his dismay, Chip Bohlender found his letter from Generalissimo Franco was in Spanish, and so an interpreter had to be found. Here he proudly holds photos he received from the president of Peru, Glenn T. Seaborg of the Atomic Energy Commission and Robert Finch of the House Education and Welfare Commission, as the fruits of his labors. (Post Photos by Donna Starr)

Action And Inaction

Congress works in strange ways. Its method of handling two recent issues illustrates some of the reasons for its ineffectiveness. In one instance (the Douglas Affair), it seems prepared to sleep to death an important investigatory responsibility. In another (the lowering of the voting age) it thunders toward an unnecessary presidential and judicial confrontation.

"Don't confuse me with the facts". This seems to be the way Congress is reacting to the Douglas affair. Pavlovian politics have taken over. Ring the conservative bell and conservatives angrily denounce Douglas. Ring the liberal bell and liberals rise in his defense.

After an initial period of uproar following the speech of Gerald Ford, Congress has settled down, and individual congressmen are now waiting to see if they are really convinced about their convictions. In most cases, this depends on how popular their initial response proves to be with the folk back home.

A resolution signed by 110 members of Congress called for appointment of a special House committee to investigate Douglas. But this proposal seems headed nowhere and has been blocked by the leadership of the Judiciary Committee. Emanuel Celler is chairman of this committee and has preempted, for the time being at least, the power to control the Douglas investigation.

In searching for a subcommittee chairman, Celler carefully viewed the interests and claims of the other 464 members of Congress. After thorough consideration, he came up with the one man pure, just, true and fair enough, in his opinion, to handle the matter. Like Lancelot, his answer: "c'est moi". That Celler is 81 years old and that William M. McCullough, who is also a member of the special committee and the ranking Republican member of the Judiciary Committee, is 68 years old, is some preliminary indication of the likely vigor of their investigations.

The 18-year-old vote problem gives us another view of Congress at work. Following the 1968 election substantial support developed in favor of lowering the age limit. It became an "in" thing to urge extension of the franchise, and somewhat in the manner of the rhetoric of pollution, the issue fed on itself.

The President surprised many when he joined the 18 year club. But his support was limited: he favored a constitutional amendment and this process requires approval by ¾ of the states. Amending the constitution is a time consuming process and securing state approvals could be difficult indeed. But this is the constitutionally prescribed means of getting the job done and certainly the safer course.

Thereafter Congress took over, and the issue has since been clouded by doubt. It proposes to avoid the problems of ratification by changing the law, not by amending the constitution. Further, it has not acted directly, but has attached the age limit provision to the bill extending the Voting Rights Act of 1965. Some of its members delight in giving the President a hard choice with but limited options (sign or not sign) when the bill comes to him.

The President last week expressed serious doubts as to constitutionality of such a law, and claimed that the 1972 election in which he, of course, is vitally interested, might be thrown into chaos. Speaker John McCormack argues that sufficient provision is made for judicial review, and that the Supreme Court will have enough time to consider the issue before the 1972 election.

But there is something wrong: here is an issue with broad support, certainly enough for effective action with a reasonable chance for ratification. But Congress chooses to make a hard thing of it. Should Mr. Nixon's surmise concerning the Supreme Court be correct, the entire process will have to be started again in 1973.

In both of these cases the end result of Congressional action seems to be confusion and a hazy kind of status quo. Perhaps all of us should insist on a lowering of the age all right — the age of congressional leadership.

Controversial Figure

In his lifetime Booker T. Washington was a controversial figure. Fifty five years after his death, he is more controversial than ever.

Speaking of him Senator Tom Watson of Georgia wrote "Booker T. Washington is as imitative as an ape; bestial as a gorilla." At the same time he was praised by Grover Cleveland and Theodore Roosevelt.

His fellow Negro, W.E.B. DuBois accused him of aiding and abetting a national crime simply because it is unpopular to fight it. He wrote " . . . in disagreement with Mr. Booker T. Washington. We have no right to sit silently by while the inevitable seeds are sown for a harvest of disaster to our children, black and white."

IN THEIR BOOK, The Negro In Our History, Woodson and Wesley refer to Dr. Washington as an outstanding Negro whose work shows he was one of the worst enemies of segregation.

But to Eldredge Cleaver, Booker T. Washington was a "Black Judas" and a false prophet.

The controversary owes its origin to Mr. Washington's statement that equality for Negroes would come from "the production of our hands . . and in proportion as we learn to dignify and glorify common labor, and put brains and skills in the common occupations of life."

This stand led him into conflict with the political leaders of the South. In reply to Mr. Washington's statement that the nation needed black men as well as white, Senator Watson wrote, "What does civilization owe to the Negro? Nothing! Nothing!! Nothing!!

Mr. Washington's faith in the achievement of Negro equality is found in his Up From Salvery. "In the long run, the world is going to have the best and any difference in race, religion, or previous history will not keep the world from what it wants."

TO GIVE THE WORLD what it wants, Washington wrote, "When a Negro girl learns to cook, to wash dishes, to sew, to write a book, or a Negro boy learns to groom horses, or to grow sweet potatoes, or to produce butter, or to build a house, or to be able to practice medicine as well or better than someone else, they will be rewarded regardless of race or color."

His views brought a reaction from W. E. Burghardt DuBois: "Mr. Washington represents in Negro thought the old attitude of adjustment and submission . . . Mr. Washington's program practically accepts the alleged inferiority of the Negro races."

"The black men of America have a duty to perform," DuBois continued, "a duty stern and delicate . . . By every civilized and peaceful method we must strive for the rights the world accords to men."

Professor DuBois's views led to his forced resignation from his teaching job. Dr. Washington's led to friendship with the leading educators of the world. But, today, Dr. DuBois is quoted as a great leader in the fight for Negro equality and Dr. Washington is called an Uncle Tom.

BOTH HAD FIRM CONVICTION that there must be an end to a system that forced a youth named Booker to ride bareback to school behind his mistress, Miss Laura, to carry her books and hold her horse, but never to enter the school house himself nor in anyway learn to read and write.

Booker T. Washington's views may be found in his book, "Up From Slavery," and in many anthologies.

W.E.B. DuBois' thoughts may be read in a book he wrote entitled, "The Souls of Black Folk," and in many anthologies.

Gas Fumes Cause Fire In Daly City

Fumes from gasoline were ignited by flame from a water heater or furnace in the garage of the Abraham Wilson residence in Daly City Sunday and an estimated $3,000 damage resulted.

A Daly City Fire Department official said Wilson's wife discovered the basement aflame shortly before 1:30 p.m.

Firemen said Wilson was getting ready to go to a neighbor's house to help work on a lawnmower when he was called to the telephone upstairs.

While Wilson was upstairs, his wife found the fire in the basement.

Fire officials said a panel truck was parked in the garage and suffered minor damage in the blaze. The basement ceiling was charred, but most of the damage was caused by smoke, firemen said, that filled the entire house.

Authorities said the fumes came either from the trucks gasoline tank or from one of two containers of gasoline on the basement floor near the rear of the truck.

Burglars Active At San Bruno

San Bruno police were swamped with a series of car and house burglaries in various sections of the city Friday night.

Biggest loss was suffered by Joann Zupo, 2570 Olympic Drive, who reported some $2,200 in cash and a watch stolen after entry was made by forcing open a glass sliding door in the side of the home.

David L. Nicholas, of 167 Santa Helena, said radio and electronic equipment valued at some $395 was stolen after a front window was smashed and the front door opened.

In the third home burglary of the night, Elsie Martin, 2740 St. Cloyd Drive, reported a $42.20 loss after her home was broken into and cash and coins were taken.

Three car owners parked outside the Mesa Bar on San Mateo Avenue in San Bruno, reported a total loss of $360 after burglars stripped their cars of everything from hubcaps to clothing.

Arrested In Robberies

Buena Park police in Southern California Saturday arrested John McMillen, alias John Hurley, in connection with the armed robberies of Lee's Pharmacy and Denny's Restaurant in Daly City last week.

The suspect had been the subject of a statewide search after allegedly shot it out with Daly City rookie policeman John Kirby outside the restaurant slightly more than a week ago.

McMillen was identified as a suspect in the case by one of his victims, police said.

Together with another man McMillen is accused of robbing a total of $3,500 from Lee's and Denny's, along with a quantity of narcotics, watches and electric shavers.

6 Youngsters Are Arrested

Six Daly City youths were arrested Saturday night near the Colma School on a variety of charges including curfew violation, possession of a straight razor, drunk, and possession of marijuana.

The youths ranged in age from 12 to 16 and included two girls.

Police would not identify the suspects because of their age. All were sent to Hillcrest Youth Guidance Center.

Officer Richard Seguine reported he spotted the youths loitering near the school about 11:20 p.m. and picked them up for curfew violation. Normally such a violation means a reprimand and turned over to the custody of parents for first offenders.

While searching the youths, however, Seguine said he found the razor and marijuana.

BAND TAPES

Westmoor High School's award-winning Stage Band has video-taped three selections for use as part of KGO-television's hour-long program, "The Young Sound," to be aired at 7 p.m., May 17.

The Daly City High School musicians performed "Introduction," "Tone-Poem," and "Psychadelphia."

Nell Norton

Sugar 'n' Spice

Good morning, good Cooks.

Are you sitting there having that second or third cup of coffee and trying to think what to put on your shopping list for dinner tonight? How about ground beef? Did I hear you say "Ho-Hum"? You'll change that to "Yum-Yum," when you read the following recipe.

MOCK ENCHILADAS

- 1 pound ground beef
- 1-3 cup chopped onion
- 1 teaspoon salt
- ¼ teaspoon pepper
- 1 one-pound can chili con corne with beans
- 1 small bag corn chips
- ¼ pound yellow cheese, diced
- (Bake 350-degree oven 30 minutes)

Brown the one pound of beef, add the one-third cup chopped onion and cook until golden. Season with the one teaspoon salt and fourth teaspoon pepper. Stir in the pound can chili con carne with beans.

Place a layer corn chips in a lightly greased one and one-half quart casserole. Alternate layers chili mixture, corn chips and cheese.

Bake uncovered in 350-degree oven about 30 minutes or until heated thoroughly. Serves 6.

Thinking about casseroles brings to mind this one sent to me by Mrs. Al Leber who lives in Council Bluffs, Iowa. Betty is the busy mother of 11 children and is always on the lookout for a dish that is easy to fix and mix.

None of the ingredients in this casserole are cooked ahead. Just combined, placed in the refrigerator over night and baked the next day.

BETTY'S TUNA BAKE

- 2 cans tuna, drained
- 2 cups uncooked elbow macaroni
- 4 hard cooked eggs, sliced
- ¼ pound diced yellow cheese (your choice)
- 2 cans cream mushroom soup
- 1 cup milk
- 1 small onion, diced
- Potato chips, to be used as topping.
- (Bake 350-degree oven for 1 hour)

In a mixing bowl combine the two cans drained tuna, two cups uncooked macaroni, four sliced hard cooked eggs, quarter pound diced cheese, two cans cream of mushroom soup, one cup milk and diced onion. Mix well and pour into lightly greased 2½ quart casserole.

Place in refrigerator and let stand overnight. Take from the refrigerator one hour before baking. Top with crushed potato chips.

Bake in 350-degree oven for 1 hour.

Serves 8.

This dish is also good, using 2 cups diced cooked chicken instead of the tuna, says Betty.

These brownies have much to recommend them. Easy to make, using a canned chocolate syrup as a main ingredient, the texture is rich and moist and the return on your investment of time and ingredients is generous.

CHOCOLATE SYRUP BROWNIES

- ½ cup margarine
- 1 cup sugar
- 4 eggs
- 1 one-pound can Hershey's Chocolate Syrup
- 1 cup plus 1 tablespoon flour
- ½ teaspoon baking soda
- 1 cup chopped nuts
- (Bake 350-degree oven 25 to 30 minutes).

Cream the half pound margarine with the cup sugar. Add the four eggs one at a time, beating well after each addition. Pour in the pound chocolate syrup and mix well. Sift together the one cup plus one tablespoon flour and half teaspoon baking soda and add to the chocolate mixture. Fold in the cup chopped nuts.

Pour into a greased 9x13-inch baking pan. Bake in 350-degree oven 25 to 30 minutes.

While still warm frost with the following:

FROSTING

- 6 Tablespoons margarine
- 6 Tablespoons milk
- 1½ cups sugar
- ¾ cup butterscotch chips (or chocolate chips if you prefer)

Combine the six tablespoons each margarine and milk and the one and one-half cups sugar in saucepan. Mix and bring to a boil. Boil one minute. Remove from heat. Add the three-fourths cup butterscotch chips and beat until smooth. Spread over warm brownies.

'Avoid These Pitfalls' Topic At Westside Baptist Church

"Avoid These Pitfalls" is the sermon topic for the May 10, 10:55 morning worship hour message at Westside Baptist Church, 390 Inverness Drive in Pacifica.

At this service mothers in attendance will be recognized. There will be special music presented.

While the adult service is in session, there is an extended session for seconds and thirds directed by Miss Diane Swedberg; a primary church, directed by Mrs. Jeann Hernandez for those four through six years of age; and a junior church, for those 7-10 years of age, directed by Mr. and Mrs. James McDaniel.

A nursery is maintained during this and all other services on Sunday.

There will be a Sunday school teachers' meeting at 6 p.m. Sunday; also the Primary GMG, as will Junior Astronauts, junior high and senior high CF.

The Family Fellowship Gospel Hour at Westsde Baptist will be at 7 p.m. Pastor Donnelly will bring another in the series of messages on questions new Christians ask, "What Do I Say"

May 1 at 7 p.m, Junior High GMG will meet at the church social hall. The Womens Missionary Society will meet May 12 at the church at 7:30 p.m.

Wednesday's Bible study hour and prayer time will be at 7:30p.m.

Pastor Donnelly is leading in the study of the Book of Romans.

HONORS

James Tenerowicz, a senior at El Camino High School, has just been notified by the Registrar of the University of California at Davis that he is eligible for "Honors at Entrance" upon registration at the University.

Yomah Is Peninsula Day Camp

Are you looking for a nearby, well-staffed, beautifully located day camp with a variety of activities including daily swimming, special trips and overnights, arts and crafts, hiking, fishing, horseback riding and more?

Registration is now being taken for the Peninsula Jewish Community Center's Day Camp Yomah or its pre-school Camp Yeledim at the center located at 2440 Carlmont Drive in Belmont.

Yomah is for youngsters in kindergarten through sixth grades. Yeledim is for preschool children three to five years of age. Both camps feature small grounds and life in the out-of-doors. There are three three-week sessions running from 9:30 a.m. to 3:30 p.m., Monday through Friday.

Session I runs from June 22 to July 10; Session II, July 13-31, and Session III, August 3-21. The Peninsula Jewish Community Center will provide transportation.

Exotic Fish Recipes From Abroad Involve Use Of Interesting Spices, Ingredients

Marine biologists estimate that there are some 24,000 species of fish in this world, most of them living in salt water and all but a few quite edible.

Although fish have been found in the vast deeps of the ocean and in cold water, fish live most happily in warm, shallow waters. For that reason the greatest variety of fish swim in the waters of southeast Asia and the Caribbean, in the same part of the world where spices also thrive most vigorously.

When it comes time to prepare these fish for a good dinner, the Southeast Asian cook is almost sure to season them with onions, garlic, red pepper, turmeric, ginger, and very often, a hint of mint.

Curries are enormously popular over most of Asia, so that curry powder, (or the individual spices that go into it) is frequently used.

Caribbean fish go to fine dinners spiced with one or more of these: allspice, bay leaf, oregano, basil, cloves, parsley, saffron and black pepper as well as red pepper, onions and garlic.

Swedish cooks add allspice, bay leaf, dill and onion to water for poaching fish.

Fish taken from the Mediterranean are seasoned most deliciously, Greek plaki with onion, garlic, pepper and parseley; French bouillabaisse with savory, thyme, rosemary, bay leaf, parsley and saffron.

When the Portuguese fry fish they serve it with a sauce seasoned with bay leaf, saffron, pepper and onion.

Note that this Portuguese Fish Stew recipe from the test kitchens of the American Spice Trade Association is flavored with red pepper, garlic, onion and parsley.

PORTUGUESE FISH STEW

½ cup onion flakes
2 tablespoons sweet pepper flakes
¼ teaspoon instant minced garlic
1-3 cup water
1-3 cup olive oil or salad oil
2 cans (1 lb. 12 oz. each) tomatoes, broken up
½ cup dry white wine (optional)
2 tablespoons parsley flakes
¾ teaspoon salt
½ to 1 teaspoon crushed red pepper
3 pounds cod or haddock steaks, cut tnto chunks
1 can (1 pt. 8 fl. oz.) steamed clams in shells, drained

Rehydrate onion flakes, pepper flakes and minced garlic in water for 10 minutes. In a heavy saucepot or Dutch oven heat oil. Add rehydrated vegetables and saute 5 minutes. Add tomatoes, wine, parsley flakes, salt and red pepper. Simmer, uncovered, 30 minutes, stirring occasionally. Add fish; simmer 20 minutes longer or until fish is cooked. Add clams and cook only until hot. Serve with French or Italian bread, if desired. Yield: eight portions.

CHUPE
(Creamed Peruvian Fish Stew)

1 package (1 lb.) frozen fish fillets, thawed
1 package (7 oz.) frozen, peeled and deveined shrimp, thawed
1½ cups water, divided
½ cup dry white wine, or water
1 can (10-½ oz.) minced clams
¾ cup onion flakes
½ teaspoon instant minced garlic
1½ cups soft bread crumbs
1 cup milk
¼ cup olive or salad oil
1 can (1 lb.) tomatoes, broken up
2 tablespoons celery flakes
2 bay leaves
1 cup heavy cream
¾ teaspoon salt
¼ teaspoon ground red pepper
2 hard-cooked eggs, quartered
2 tablespoons grated Parmesan cheese

In a medium skillet simmer fish and shrimp in 1 cup of the water and the wine for 5 minutes. Remove fish and shrimp. Flake fish; set aside along with shrimp. Reserve fish liquid. Drain clams, reserving liquid. Add clams to fish and shrimp mixture. Combine fish and clam liquids; set aside. Rehydrate onion flakes and minced garlic in remaining ½ cup water for 10 minutes. Soak bread crumbs in milk. In a Dutch oven or heavy saucepot heat oil. Add rehydrated vegetables and saute 5 minutes. Add tomatoes, celery flakes and bay leaves; simmer 5 minutes. Add reserved fish and clam liquid; the softened bread crumbs, heavy cream, salt, red pepper and fish mixture. Heat thoroughly, but do not boil. Garnish with sliced egg and grated cheese. YIELD: 6 portions

Mothers' Day Treat In Hot Brunch

The "m" in "mothers" must stand for meals, for mothers prepare so many of them. Appropriately, what's left is "others" — the families for whom those nourishing meals are provided.

A special ingredient called love is tenderly added to each dish, each menu. No wonder mothers merit a day of recognition!

Dad and-or children can show appreciation by reversing the roles and preparing a hot brunch in mother's honor on her day or any day!

Build the menu around pork sausage patties with bacon-wrapped pineapple.

Any mother is sure to enjoy this brunch prepared deliciously with love for her

Pork Sausage Patties

Shape 1 pound fresh bulk pork sausage into 6 to 8 patties ½ to ¾ inch thick. Place in cold frying-pan with 3 tablespoons water. Cover and cook over low heat 5 minutes. Remove cover and pour off drippings. Cook uncovered over low heat, turning occasionally, until patties are browned and well done.

Bacon-Wrapped Pineapple

Place 10 to 16 slices of bacon on rack in broiler pan. Broil bacon 2 to 3 inches from heat just until bacon is slightly cooked. Pour off drippings. Drain 1 can pineapple spears (10 to 16 spears). Wrap a slice of bacon around each pineapple spear. Place bacon-wrapped pineapple on broiler rack and broil until bacon is crisp.

A Saucepan Dish's Easy

This easy saucepan macaroni and cheese is loaded with nutritional value. Cook 1 package (8 ounces) macaroni according to package directions; drain. Stir in 1 can (8 ounces) tomato sauce with mushrooms, ¼ cup butter or margarine and 1 teaspoon Worcestershire sauce; cook over low heat until butter melts. Add 2 cups evaporated milk (undiluted) and ½ pound process sharp American cheese, shredded; stir until thoroughly heated and cheese melts. Makes 4 to 6 servings.

Bruncheon Guests 'In' Entertainment—Try Spring Morn Baked Eggs

Guests for Bruncheon — or Brunch is the "in" way to entertain now. With spring at our fingertips and the promise of spring reminders like daffodils and pussywillow, tulips and forsythia to wave in the air next to the patio . . . why not choose a Sunday brunch. Serve Bloody Marys with or without and your favorite quick hot bread and butter before actually sitting. The entree may be varied, but somehow when we think of a brunch we always think of Eggs Benedict. How about this short-cut method for that ever popular favorite?

SPRING MORN BAKED EGGS

1-third cup salad dressing or mayonnaise
¼ teaspoon salt
⅛ teaspoon pepper
½ teaspoon paprika
½ teaspoon Worcestershire sauce
½ cup milk
1 cup grated sharp cheese
1 cup crushed potato chips
8 eggs

Combine salad dressing and seasoning. Gradually add milk, stirring after each addition until smooth. Add cheese and cook over low heat until cheese is melted, about 5 minutes. Pour 2 tablespoons of the sauce into each of 4 individual grased baking dishes. Break 2 eggs into each dish and top with remaining sauce. Top each with potato chips divided equally using about ¼ cup each serving. Place dishes in a pan of hot water. Bake in a preheated 350-degree oven for about 12 to 15 minutes or until eggs are desired consistency. Makes 4 servings.

Hot melt in your mouth snacks too frequently take the edge off what started out to be an enjoyable dinner. You can't beat it everybody loves a before dinner appetizer, especially at cocktail parties. This terrific selection is quite unusual and so very tasty. Cheese or meat is encased around golden crusts of dough and are baked until they are crisp and attractive. The potato chip crumbs add not only flavor and eye appeal but they add even more crunch. You and your guests will rave . . . and wait and see.

POTATO CHIP PUFF UPS

1 package refrigerated biscuits
1 envelope onion soup mix
1 stick butter or margarine
Cubes of sharp cheddar cheese or 1-inch piece of weiner
1 cup potato chip crumbs

Cut each of the biscuits into thirds. Thoroughly blend ½ envelope of onion mix with the stick of butter or margarine. Inside of each one-third of biscuit put a piece of either cheese or weiner. Pinch edges together. Secure edges firmly as you enclose meat or cheese. Dip the dough puff in the margarine or butter mixture then into the potato chip crumbs. Place them on ungreased baking sheet about 1-inch apart. Bake in a preheated 400-degree oven for 8 to 10 minutes or until golden brown.

Even though egg prices have been sky-high since the first of the year, we are finally beginning to see the ceiling. That's another wonderful thing about spring — egg prices tend to go down and it's generally from Easter on through the summer months. Since eggs are so high in valuable protein, include them often in your meals.

This version of Deviled Eggs is extra good because of the added crispness from potato chips.

STUFFED CHIP EGGS

4 eggs, hard cooked
4 slices bacon, cooked until crisp
3 tablespoons mayonnaise
2 teaspoons minced parsley
1 teaspoon sweet pickle relish
¼ cup finely crushed potato chips
Paprika

While eggs are still warm cut in half lengthwise. Mash yolks and mix with next 5 ingredients. Mix until smooth. Fill whites with yolk mixture using either a pastry tube to get "piping" effect, or lightly spoon in heaping full. Sprinkle with paprika.

Ham, Other Ingredients In Fondue

A leftover has the potential of being as exciting as the original main dish! One superb example that proves the point is baked ham. In addition to slicing for grilling or cold sandwiches, it can be diced, chopped or ground for other kitchen creations.

Baked Ham-Spinach Fondue is rich in nutrients as well as flavor. It's such a delectable entree, you'll want to buy ham specifically for this recipe if you lack leftover meat. Every forkful of this souffle-like entree contains flavorsome bits of ham for appetite satisfaction.

Baked Ham-Spinach Fondue

2 cups ground or finely chopped ham
1 package (10 ounces) frozen chopped spinach
1½ cups soft bread crumbs or cubes
1 cup (4 ounces) shredded Cheddar cheese
1 cup milk, scalded
⅛ teaspoon pepper
⅛ teaspoon nutmeg
3 eggs

Cook spinach according to directions on package and drain, squeezing out excess water. Combine with ham, bread crumbs, cheese, milk, pepper and nutmeg. Separate eggs. Beat yolks until light and stir into ham mixture. Beat whites until stiff and lightly fold into mixture. Pour into a 1½-quart ungreased casserole. Bake in slow oven 325 degrees F. 50 to 60 minutes or until firm. Six servings.

DEATHS

DONALD A. STEENVOORDE

Donald A. Steenvoorde, 19, of 140 Anza Way, San Bruno, died Friday as the result of a traffic accident.

Funeral services were conducted at 9 a.m. Tuesday from the San Bruno Funeral Home, followed by a requiem mass at St. Bruno's Catholic Church. Interment will be at Holy Cross Cemetery.

Rosary was offered at 8 p.m. Monday.

A native of California and San Bruno resident for 17 years, he was a graduate of Capuchino High School and a member of the school band. He worked at the San Francisco Navel Shipyard.

Survivors include his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Albertus Steenvoorde, two brothers, Paul of Montara, and Albertus Jr., and three sisters, Mrs. Kathleen A. Cooney, Marilyn and Sussanne, all of San Bruno.

FRED A. LAKE

Fred A. Lake, of 1055 Manzanita Drive, Pacifica, died yesterday at his home of an apparent heart attack. He was 71.

A native of Hollowell, Me., Mr. Lake was a retired bridge tender. He lived in the county two years, before coming here from Portland, Oregon.

He is survived by two daughters, Mrs. Dorothy Sale, of Pacifica and Mrs. Elizabeth Deming, of Pacifica; two sons, David Lake of San Francisco and Fred Lake of Moss Beach; 22 grandchildren and 10 great-grandchildren.

Funeral services will be held Wednesday at 2 p.m. at the Pacifica Ward Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints on 730 Sharp Park Road, Pacifica. Interment will be at Skylawn Memorial Park. Services will be conducted by Bishop Ronald Lewis of the Pacifica Ward. Friends may call at the Layng and Tinney Funeral Chapel, in Redwood City until 12 noon Wednesday.

ROBERT MARK MICK

Robert Mark Mick, 13, of 7 Westlake Court, Pacifica, died Saturday, victim of a hit-run accident.

Funeral services will be held at 1 p.m. Wednedsay from the Nauman and Lincoln Chapel by the Sea Mortuary, Pacifica. Interment will be private.

A native of San Francisco, he was a Pacifica resident for seven years and a student at Fairmont Grammer School.

Survivors include his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Mick, grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Everett Livermore of Reading, Calif., Charles Mick Sr., of West Virginia, and Mrs. Mary Tubbs of Washington, great-grandparents, Charles Dorringer, of Florida and Bertha Dorringer of Maryland, a brother, Sean, and a sister, Cathleen.

Quartet Of Robbers Is Broken Up

Police have broken up a quartet of armed robbers who allegedly held up nine men in San Francisco's Tenderloin District in a three hour period last week using a "Good Samaritan" ruse.

The gang, made up of two men and their two young women companions, netted between $250-$300 in all, according to police inspectors.

Daly City police working with San Francisco inspectors arrested the final three suspects in the case after one of the gang told police where to find them.

Police said the girls would walk up to a victim on the street, explain that a strange man was trying to kidnap them and while they were engaged in talking to the victim, the men would come up behind and shove a .45 caliber automatic in their backs.

Earlier this week Gary Burns, 20, married and a resident of San Francisco, was arrested for carrying a concealed weapon—the .45 automatic.

During questioning he informed police where to find his companions.

Arrested by police officer Fred Holewinske on San Francisco warrants for armed robbery, were:

Dee Dee Solomon, 20, 618 Hanover street; Gregory Achilles, 20, unknown Daly City address, and an unidentified 17 year old Daly City girl.

Plane Crash Victim's Body Found

The body of Lyman C. Latta, 36-year-old San Bruno airline machinist, was found Thursday washed up on a southern San Mateo County beach near where his plane crashed into the ocean April 11.

Russell C. Towle, 21, caretaker at a nearby ranch, told Deputy Sheriff John Hammarstrom that he discovered the body at 12:30 p.m. on the beach about one-fourth of a mile north of Point Ano Nuevo. Towle said the body apparently washed up during the night as he had last passed that spot at 8:30 p.m.

Hammarstrom said identification was made through papers in a wallet found with the remains.

Latta, of 361 Texas Boulevard, San Bruno, was piloting his two-seater plane April 11 when it spun out of control and plummeted into the ocean about one mile north of Point Ano Nuevo. His passenger, Dennis Shields, 25, of 406 West San Bruno Avenue, San Bruno, was rescued from the ocean by a daring Coast Guard helicopter crew.

Both men were employed as machinists for Western Airlines at International Airport.

Latta is survived by his wife and two children.

Scholarship Is Offered In South S.F.

Mexican-American seniors in South San Francisco high schools may be eligible for a college scholarship, it was announced today by the South San Francisco chapter of the California Teachers Association.

The scholarship will be awarded to a Mexican-American graduate of South San Francisco high schools who speaks Spanish and who will major in education while in college.

This is the second year the scholarship will be awarded by the Human Relations committee of the South San Francisco chapter of the CTA. Last years' recipient, Juanita Garcia, is currently enrolled in San Jose State College.

Interested seniors are urged to request applications from their counselors, teachers, or from the CTA office at El Camino High School, Room 13. All applications must be in no later than May 15.

Additional information about the scholarship is available from Mr. Conrad Mezzetta, or Human Relations Committee, CPA at El Camino High School Room 13.

Drive-In Robbed By Two Men

Two men Wednesday night robbed the Spruce Drive-in, 55 South Spruce, South San Francisco, of an estimated $100, and escaped on foot.

Police said an immediate search of the nearby residential area failed to turn up the suspects. They were described as being male Negroes in their late 20's or early 30's.

The pair used physical force to pull of the robbery. Police said they walked up to the cashier and told her to open the cash drawer.

When she had difficulty doing it, they grabbed her and opened the door to the cashier's office, took the cash, fleeing north into the residential area. Police said the cashier was not harmed.

Opposition To Senate Bill In San Bruno

San Bruno councilmen have gone on record in opposition to state senate bill 695, having to do with city police functions.

According to Councilman Maurice Hamilton, who prompted the council action, the bill is a violation of home rule.

He explained it as an attempt of the state to take control of city police functions including mandating of the salaries, hours of work and training programs.

"This is a legislative invasion of home rule," said Hamilton. "And it is done in the name of 'support your local police' and supposedly by a tax reform legislature."

Hamilton also pointed out that although the present bill would have the state set salaries, it would still be up to the cities to come up with the money to pay these salaries.

The measure, according to Hamilton, is being supported by 13 senators.

Budget Is Presented

Administration of the South San Francisco Unified School District has presented trustees with a $12,875,717 budget for the 1970-71 school year.

The figure is $12,434 above the 1969-70 budget. The proposed tax rate to cover the budgetary figures is $4.9456. This compares with a tax rate of $4.6168 in 1969-70. A proposed dental program for teachers could bring this year's tax rate up another eight cents.

S. S. F. High's Business Leaders Win Honors At Oakland Event

At the twenty-first annual Future Business Leaders of America Convention at the Hilton Inn at Oakland recently, FBLA members from South San Francisco High School returned home with top state honors.

The convention attracted FBLA members from the state to compete in business skill competition for statewide and nationwide honors. The FBLA organization is an organization for high school business students In California, FBLA is divided into four sections: Souther, central, bay, and northern. Presently there are 22,000 members and 86 chapters throughout California.

A clean sweep was taken in the shorthand contest for South San Francisco High students: Linda Payton, first; Sue May, second; Pam Caudron, third. (Last year in Sacramento, Linday Payton took first in the typewriting contest!)

A near sweep was taken in the typing contest: Sue Kim, first; Linda Keane, third; and Lori Eisenberg, fourth.

In the Miss FBLA Contest, Linda Kenae took third place state honors. This contest determines the most outstanding business student in FBLA. To qualify, Linda placed first in the Bay Section competition, placed in the top five at the state level in the written examination, and was interviewed by a panel of business and professional judges, at the state convention.

This honor qualifies Linda for national competition at the FBLA National Convention to be held in Philadelphia in June.

For the sixth year, the Parliamentary Procedure team of SSFHS has been represented in state competition. Taking third place were Carol Palmer, Bob Bowen, and Don Sullivant. Further recognition was given for the chapter exhibit by Barry Aug, largest chapter attendance from the Bay Section, largest chapter membership, Bay Section. Certificates of Merit were pesented to President Sylvia Mergogey.

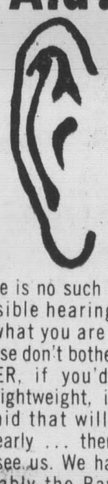
However, the highest recognition was given South San Francisco High FBLA in the Gold Star award, an award given to a chapter with the most outstanding projects and activities for the 1969-70 school year. This award has been presented to SSFHS during the last three years. (In 1969, the chapter was given national recognition at the convention in Dallas for its FBLA program and promotion.)

In addition to the above awards, South San Francisco High students were elected into state FBLA offices for 1970-71: Gene Mackey, vice president; and Bob Bowen, reporter; inducted to serve the Bay Section were: Gene Mackey, president; Bruce Ferrario, vice president; Sue Peterson, secretary, and Bob Bowen, reporter. These students will plan not only the activities for Bay Section FBLA but also statewide activities.

Twenty-six members and three advisers attended the convention: Linda Payton, Linda Keane, Pam Caudron, Sue May, Lori Eisenberg, Sue Kim, Carol Palmer, Don Sullivant, Bob Bowen, Gene Mackey, Wesley Quon, Bruce Rododni, Barry Aug, Dortta Shimamoto, Sue Peterson, Sandy Little, Le Ann Crosariol, Jeanne Guenette, Katie Choy, Sylvia Mergogey, Chris Hanson, Kathy Cranlik, Sue Peterson, Gwen Kemp, Rita Kemp, Anita Price, and Miss Schifferli, Mis Mitchell, and Mr. Peligrino.

Delegats to the national convention at Philadelphia in June will now be selected to represent South San Francisco High.

Invisible Hearing Aid?



No. There is no such thing as an invisible hearing aid. If that's what you are looking for, please don't bother us.... HOWEVER, if you'd like a small, lightweight, inconspicuous aid that will let you hear clearly ... then by all means see us. We have what is probably the Bay Area's largest selection of famous Radioear hearing aids and other nationally advertised brands, reasonably priced from $179 to $339. Trial period and budget terms, of course.

7 Negotiable Issues Are Discussed

voring teachers there could easily be a strike.

Meanwhile, in the matter of negotiations, only seven of 19 negotiable items were discussed at the Wednesday night session.

The board's representative, Supt. Paul Nielsen, and the negotiating council representatives came to agreement earlier on the 12 other issues.

Trustees stayed with the most recent offer of the superintendent on four of the seven negotiable items.

These included a cost of living increase of 4 per cent now and an additional 2.2 per cent increase later from "fresh funds." This would be from a tax election, proposition 8 or unrestricted state monies.

On these two issues, the negotiating council had sought a cost of living increase of 5.6 per cent now and an additional 2.6 per cent increase from "fresh funds."

A third item was a request for a fully paid medical plan for employes and dependents, and the fourth was to have private school teaching experience accepted on a half-credit basis. Both were rejected by the superintendent.

When they came out of executive session they sent administrator of business Joe Smith to the blackboard for a numerical breakdown of the district's financial condition, using this as the main reason they could not accept the four proposals.

After an explanation (certainly too involved to be digested immediately by all) the gist was that the district's tax rate is going to increase by 33 cents this next year, and if a dental plan already agreed to were included, the increase would go up to 41 cents.

"Thank you for explaining that the increase of taxes is not necessarily due to increased teachers salaries," said Mezetta after Smith had finished his boardwork, with no item specifically related to teachers salaries.

The proposal of the negotiating council seeking rights of teachers to evaluate administrators came under the most fire.

It, and a request of the teachers to be able to elect their own department heads, were referred back to the negotiating council for them to consult with the district's Association of Administrative Personnel and come back with specific guidelines in each case.

Presently there is no teacher evaluation of adminstrators and the appointment of department heads is accomplished by individual school principals.

With the final item, the teacher dress code, the negotiating council did win a victory of sorts, to the chagrin of Neilsen.

The superintendent wanted the dress of teachers spelled out, including requirements of full length trousers, shoes and socks for the men.

"These added items are demeaning," said representative Barbara Olds. "We should be allowed to use our own judgment, not have to refer to a list each morning to see that we're properly dressed."

People, Dollar Shortages

Unless the unions agree to allow the program inside the stores, the market owners do not dare get involved in the program, one participant pointed out.

Money sent to the Daly City Information and Referral Center as part of the program is used to subsidize work projects, according to Marion Goodwon, director of the Center on Mission Street.

"All the money goes toward this. There are no office expenses taken from these contributions," Goodwin explained.

The next meeting will be at the same restaurant (Lyons) on May 28, at the same time (8 a.m.) and hopefully the same people will be there this time accompanied by many others.

'Easements' Topic For Panel Talk

A panel discussion on "easements" will highlight a May 12 night meeting of the Avalon Concerned Taxpayers in South San Francisco.

Mrs. Lois Barnes, a founder and secretary of the organization said that regardless of the name, the meeting and membership in the organization is open to the public.

The group, formed last year primarily because of a concern with dust problems, now is in the process of incorporating as a civic league to include all of South San Francisco.

"We have begun to realize that there are concerns other than dust that affect all of South San Francisco, such as jet noise," said Mrs. Barnes.

The group meets at 7:30 p.m. monthly at the Avalon School multipurpose room, scheduling programs of citywide interest.

Panel members for the Tuesday session include Melvin Seid with the environmental health section of the San Mateo County Health Department, Thomas Moore, representing the city's department of public works, representatives (unnamed at press time) from PG&E and the telephone company, and City Atty. John Noonan, who will act as panel moderator.

Airport Back To Normal

union and employer representatives.

Fitzgerald said whether Viking trucks are allowed at the airport or not is "not my problem."

"I was mostly interested in keeping the airport open and avoiding any more confrontations like the one Sunday," Fitzgerald said yesterday.

"One good reason to keep the airport open is that a million dollars worth of San Mateo County flowers are ready for shipment for Mother's Day."

Fitzgerald said he pledged to Alioto that police patrols by the sheriff's office will be increased at the airport "during these troublesome times." The supervisor said he spoke to Assistant Sheriff Eugene E. Stewart about it after the meeting last night and was assured that the commitment will be fulfilled.

The scheduled contempt hearing before superior Judge Melvin E. Cohn was continued to Wednesday at 9:30 a.m., after Thomas Andrade, business agent for Local 85, failed to appear.

Kenneth Silbert, attorney for the union, contended that Andrade had not been served with a summons to appear.

Robert F. Manifold, employed to serve the sommons, testified that he had aproached Andrade and had attempted to serve him, but that the agent had walked away and declined to accept the paper.

Judge Cohn ruled that in his opinion there had been service on the agent and the union as well.

Choice On Committee Splits Vote

Burlingame suggested Barberian could keep on representing the county but Bertucelli maintained a councilman or mayor should be in the post.

Martin argued there is no legal reason that a public official has to represent the county on the board.

Councilman William R. Lawson of Menlo Park, noting that originally there was only one supervisor from San Mateo County, two supervisors from San Francisco, and one representative from BART, agreed that the representative should come from a city.

Mayor Edward Vallerga of Belmont questioned if it would be wise for Barberian to continue to serve. Glang suggested some councilman from North County nominated Parcelli.

Ahern nominated Bertulucci.

Teachers' Group In SSF Votes Strike

day school opened last September.

The pot boiled over for many of the district's teachers last Wednesday when the school board flatly rejected final pleas of the teachers for a 5.6 per cent cost-of-living increase, with an additional 2.6 per cent later from fresh funds.

Final offer of the district was a four per cent increase, plus a promise of 2.2 per cent more from the fresh funds.

The district also rejected a fully paid medical plan, although they did grant a fully paid dental plan for employes and dependents.

Credit for private school teaching experience was rejected, and the buck was passed on teacher evaluation of administrators and election of department heads.

The district did place $419,800 in the 1970-71 preliminary budget for salary increases, however there also will be 40 positions eliminated next year.

Pay increase agreements reached in early negotiations were those for teacher longevity, adult education teachers, home teachers, driver training teachers, substitute teachers, Red Cross swim program instructors and coaches pay.

The district contends it simply does not have the funds to meet the requests. Teachers contend it would be possizle if non-teaching, rather than teaching, positions and "unnecessary" expenditures were eliminated.

Kidnap Leads To Robbery

man drove off, apparently to rob the store.

He returned minutes later and they warned Ogas to "stay put" for an hour or they would carry out their threat and have a third man, who was watching his home, "blow it up" with a fire bomb.

With his hands still secured behind his back Ogas managed to get out of the car about ten minutes after the pair left and make his way toward Geary Boulevard.

Several times he stopped to ask parked motorists for help. Each time they refused and drove off.

About an hour after he left his Daly City home, Ogas stumbled into the Seal Rock Inn on Geary Street and police were called.

After releasing the victim from the handcuffs, police went to the store at 735 Seventh Avenue and found the safe open.

Coast Uses Mussel Rock Dump Site

side by Daly City include dumping of not more than 60 tons of refuse per day. No "demolition type" debris will be allowed at the dump.

Daly City will charge $4 per ton and much of the money is expected to be put back into construction of the seawall ordered by the State Water Quality Control Board to insure the dump does not pollute the shoreline

Daly City Scavenger Company President Aladene Sereni predicted the 60-day lease would bring in an added $3,000 which could be used for the seawall project.

Sereni said the Pacifica company's four trucks would not use neighborhood streets in the Mussel Rock area, rather they would enter and leave the dumpsite via a back shoreline road.

Councilman McRobert Stewart asked how the $4 price tag per ton was determined.

Rowe replied that his office had reviewed past records and other performance data along with Sereni, and the figure appeared to be fair to both parties involved.

McCLURE SHINES AGAIN

Tenth T. N. Win; Title Is Cinched

By JERRY LITTRELL
Post Sports Writer

A four game lead with four games left to play isn't the hardest thing in the world to accept.

The perfect Terra Nova Tigers find themselves in that exact situation after clinching no worse than a tie for the title Friday with a thrilling 2-1 victory over second-place Jefferson. Al Figone's North Peninsula League leaders need only one more win in four outings to win the title outright and the way they have been playing it will be a simple chore for the Tigers.

The defending Central Coast Section champions, who upon getting into the post-season classic again this season will be rated as tourney favorites, used the tricky deliveries of senior lefty Bob McClure to get yesterday's victory, the 10th in 10 tries for TN.

In other NPL action Friday, South San Francisco blanked El Camino, 1-0; Half Moon Bay did likewise to Serramonte, 1-0; and Oceana continued on its vengeful way with a 4-1 win over Westmoor.

McClure struck out seven Indians and walked three while plunking three more with his pitches but was never in serious trouble. Head-faking the Indians out of their feathers, McClure picked four runners off base to keep Jefferson at bay.

After Jefferson took a 1-0 lead in the first on Tony Moss' single, Dave Mibelli's single and a successful double steal, Terra Nova came back to tie it in the first on Mike Rawlings single, a walk to Mike Humphrey and an RBI single by centerfielder Mike Calder.

The Tigers struck for the final run in the third when Rawlings, who had three hits and is almost a shoo-in as the league's top catcher, tripled and came home on Humphrey's single.

Losing pitcher Frank Edleman, who pitched excellent ball struck out five in taking the rough loss.

Lefthander John Ramacciotti, who has already lost a one-hitter, found happiness in a two-hitter yesterday over Serramonte. The senior backup man to Jim Emery at HMB allowed just two hits and no walks, struck out five, drove in the only run and retired the last 13 batters he faced. He also raked the infield.

The Cougars, wto pulled into a three-way tie for second, scored in the bottom of the seventh when Skip Giannocca was hit by a pitch, went to second on a balk, to third on Emery's single and home on Ramacciotti's safety.

Losing pitcher Dave Theuner pitched well enough to win with a three-hitter, striking out six and not walking anyone.

Righthander Bruce Collins fired a three-hitter and catcher Brad Brian drove in the game's lone run as South S.F. edged the visiting Colts. South City scored right away as Leo Bernardini walked as the leadoff man in the first, stole second and came home on Brian's bouncer through the infield.

Tigers Rip Rams, 11-1 In NPL Play

Al Figone's charges ran their conference record to a perfect 9-0 on April 28 with a surprisingly-easy 11-1 triumph over Westmoor's in-and-out Rams. That leaves only Jefferson, which tied TN for the title last season, as the only school with even a remote chance to catch the title-bound Tigers. And remote is hardly the word at that.

In other league action that day, Half Moon Bay staved off a late El Camino rally to upend the Colts, 8-6, in a three-hour fifteen-minute marathon. South San Francisco pounded out 15 hits en route to a 10-3 win over Oceana while Jefferson bunched all its runs in one inning to edge cellar-dwelling Serramonte, 5-3.

Figone began sharpening up his pitching staff for the tough post-season competition as he started lefty junior Bud Papadakis. The Tiger hurler responded with a solid five-hitter against the Rams, who had gotten 19 hits against SSF, and walked just two while striking out nine. He was never in serious trouble.

Mike Rawlings supplied the batting power with a two-run home run in a six-run fourth inning after drivng in Tim Lutz, who opened the game with a triple, with a first-inning single. Ernie Manley also got two hits for the surging Tigers.

Steve Javier's misjudged fly ball to centerfield fell for a three-run home run to highlight the Indians' five-run second inning. A wild pitch, hit batter, a walk, an error, catcher's interference, a single, a double and an infield out accounted for the final runs as Jeff made the most out of the least.

John Stack came on for Serramonte in the second inning and pitched five and two-thirds of no-hit ball for the Regents but it was too late. Don Giles drove in two of the three Regent runs and Howie Caplan batted in the third against winner Dale Conway, who struck out seven and walked none.

HMB sent nine men to the plate in a five-run sixth inning for a rallying 8-6 win over the Colts. But for the first time in two years, HMB lefty Jim Emery was unable to finish what he started. The stylish southpaw was knocked out of the box by Camino in a three-run fifth frame and the victory went to relief pitcher John Ramacciotti.

Jim Sartin hit a two-run homer for the losers while Tom Buckley got three solid hits. But the Camino defense fell completely apart in the sixth as HMB rallied from a 4-3 deficit to an 8-4 lead highlighted by Shane Burr's double and a bases-loaded sacrifice by Emery.

Every game in the NPL featured a big inning and the South City affair was no exception. The Warriors got six runs in the fourth to ease by Oceana. Rich Crumpton's double and Dave Gutierrez' single were the big blows as the Warriors pounded out five straight hits to knock junior Mark Fadgen out of the box. Gutierrez later homered for SSF.

Warrior Spikes Stay Unbeaten

Thanks to enviable depth and the talent of an intriguing Brother act, South San Francisco High School is heading for a socko finish to the North Peninsula League track season.

The Warriors, as a matter of fact, have earned nothing but rave reviews thus far for an NPL dual meet record that improved to 6-0 on Friday with a 93-43 victory over the Jefferson Indians. Over-all, it was South San Francisco's 10th dual meet win without defeat going into the season's final match - up next week against Half Moon Bay.

Thus the Warriors loom a likely favorite to go into the NPL Championship meet undetheir title hope coming from cross - town rival El Camino, a team South San Francisco beat by a single point.

Tony and Potamoe Sotoa, a pair of Samoan brothers, led the assault on Jeff on Friday by scoring 17 points between them, even though the Warriors limited their competition in favor of Saturday's Castro Valley Invitational.

Tony Sotoa won the high hurdles and long jump while his brother took the shot put. Each also finished third, respectively, in the 100 and high jump.

In last week's other dual meets, El Camino beat Serramonte, Westmoor devastated Half Moon Bay, 109 - 27, and Oceana barely survived against Terra Nova, 72-64.

Westmoor got double victory performances from Wally Klevesahl in the weights, Ron Newton in the horizontal jumps, and Domingo Arnaldo, in he high hurdles and high jump, to breeze against the Cougars. Westmoor's best effort, however, was a 50.8 quarter - mile by Ken Phelps.

At Terra Nova, the Tigers' Steve Naylor ran to a 4:27.0 mile that beat Oceans's formidable Ernie Ribera, and Tom Ficken took both sprints with respective marks of 10.2 and 23.2.

Oceana's best performance was a 6-4½ high jump victory by Larry Kermabon.

3d Neighborhood Olympics Track Meet Set In SSF

The third annual Neighborhood Olympics Track Meet sponsored by the South San Francisco Recreation and Park Department is slated for Saturday, May 23 at South San Francisco High School track (Clifford Field).

All elementary, junior and senior high school boys and girls and teenagers are eligible to compete within four categories: fourth grade and under, fifth and sixth grades, seventh and eighth grades, and ninth to twelfth grades.

The younger boys and girls in the 4th grade and under category along with those in the fifth and sixth Grade category will compete in the morning from 10 a.m. to 1 p.m. in seven events ranging from the 25 yard dash to the basketball throw. No track shoes can be permitted in the younger categories, however, tennis or gym shoes are recommended.

Teenaged boys and girls in the seventh and eighth grade category and ninth to twelfth grade category will run in the afternoon from 1 to 4 p.m. in most of the standard distances and field events:100, 220, 440, 880, long jump, high jump, shot put, discus and the mile for ninth to twelfth grades. Spikes will be allowed. However, teens are reminded that no school uniforms can be worn.

Boys and girls will be limited to competing in two field events and two track events each and must compete within their own age group. Awards will be first, second and third place ribbons.

Boys and girls interested in participating in this citywide event should report to South City High School track May 23. There is no entry fee and no prior registration is required.

3-Way Tie In DC Hunch Ball League

The Daly City Recreation Department's Adult 3 Man Hunch Basketball League "Under 6 Foot Division" was thrown into a three way tie for first place as the Volcanoes upset the Pomona Casuals 40-29 and the Atheltes edged the Undertakers 42 - 38.

The Sportsmen maintained their slim one game lead in the Open Division as they trimmed the Gators 41 1 28 while the final action, the Lucky Six bounced the Dagos 40 - 14.

Sportscripts

WE KNEW IF WE WAITED long enough that the Karate nuts would stick one of their "deadly" chops in their mouth, and it happened spectacularly and beyond our wildest dreams last week in Chicago.

But before we jump into that caper, allow us to provide the background of a piece we wrote in February — one of a continuing series over the years to debunk the Karate sickness concerning an unbelievable ad being run in respectable national magazines by one "Count Dante," who billed himself "The Deadliest Man Alive" and offered to teach one and all, via mail, the forbidden secrets of "The Death Touch," an art guaranteed to teach the "Evil . . . cruel . . . lethally savage, ripping, tearing, slashing, clawing and gouging techniques" which could "torture . . . maim . . . disfigure . . . cripple . . . paralyze . . . or kill. . . ."

Now to Chicago. It seems that there's been a big feud going on between three rival Karate schools that was culminated last week when one of the schools, The Black Cobra Hall, was invaded by what they termed a "crowd of thugs" from the House of Dante. .

Sound familiar? The "crowd of thugs" was led by one John Keehan, who bills himself, get this, "the deadliest man in the world." You guessed it. "Count Dante" is the stage name of none other than John Keehan.

What ensued would be funny if it hadn't turned to tragedy, which only makes it pitiful. You might imagine that The Count would have busted the door of the Black Cobra Hall open with one super Karate chop, and that then he and his crowd would have engaged in a classic group Death Match with the Black Cobra . . . you know, Karate speeches and grunts and groans and screams and viril shouts of "KARATE" being shouted all around until finally just one man is standing alone amidst a rubble of broken bodies — that man, of course, being Count Dante, arms folded across his body, erect, unscathed. How he gained entrance, though, the police allege, was by flashing a sheriff's badge.

WELL, THERE WERE TWO casualties. One was the kind from which you don't recover. One of the Count's associates was disembowled with a 14-inch Samurai sword wielded by a Black Cobra who said he was being beaten and had to defend himself.

Since the original intent of Karate, as it was conceived by oppressed and disarmed Okinawans several hundred years ago, was that it should replace confiscated swords, we'd like to know what a Karate expert was doing with the very object which is "art" is supposed to eliminate. And since the alleged murderer is a Black Cobra instructor, we'd like to know why he had to use a sword to defend himself, if he's such a hot-shot at his trade.

As a matter of fact, it would be very interesting to know just what such an offensive weapon is doing on the premises of an establishment which bills itself as an institution pledged to teach "self-defense" only.

The other casualty is the more curious of the two, however, though less personally tragic. Seems that a member of the Black Cobra was hit in the face with what the police called a blunt instrument and may, as a result, lose an eye.

THE MAN WHO HIT the guy over the head with what was probably a club was none other than "Count Dante," the deadliest man alive, the man who has admitted that he can kill with one swipe with either of his bar hands from any angle, any time of the day or night. So the first chance the Count has to prove it for the public he belts a guy over the head with a club, and even at that can't do him in!

And may we leave the Count with some immortal words, which he penned himself for that ad which ran in February:

"I pledge never to use the deadly techniques of the manual as an aggressor (only to defend myself) and (I) will never abuse the trust placed in me."

IF YOU'RE SKEPTICAL of the claim (our claim) that pinch-hitting is an art separate of itself and which in no way inparallels the skill of "regular" hitting, perhaps you would be interested in taking the following series of mini-tests. Merely guess which of each group of hitters had or has the better lifetime pinch-hitting record and approximate what their pinching batting averages are:

Ty Cobb, Babe Ruth, Tris Speaker, George Sisler;

Rogers Hornsby, Hans Wagner, Nap Lajoie, Harry Heilmann;

Mel Ott, Stan Musial, Ted Williams, Paul Waner, Lloyd Waner, Joe DiMaggio, Jimmy Foxx, Hack Wilson, Hank Greenberg;

Carl Yastrzemski, Roger Maris, Eddie Matthews, Ralph Kiner;

Hank Aaron, Willie Mays, Roberto Clemente, Harmon Killebrew;

Pete Rose, Mickey Mantle, Frankie Frisch, Rip Collins;

Ready to feel ignorant like we did when we looked them up?

Answers: Speaker (.333), Sisler (.273), Cobb (.218), Ruth (.194); Heilmann (.307), Hornsby (.302), Lajoie (.257), Wagner (.161); Williams (.298), Lloyd Waner (.291), Musial (.278), Paul Waner (.244), Ott (234); DiMaggio (.500 . . . Note: Joe pinch-hit only 12 times), Foxx (.268), Wilson (.250), Greenberg (.188); Kiner (.364), Maris (.232, Mathews (.171), Yastrzemski (.157); Clemente (.280), Aaron (2.50), Mays (.265), Killebrew (.175); Frisch (2.55), Mantle (2.36), Collins (.188), Rose (.172).

ALMOST MAKES you think they should let those pitchers hit for themselves, doesn't it? Of that entire group of good to great hitters, only DiMaggio and Kiner pinch-hit better than their lifetime batting averages, and you almost have to throw DiMaggio's record out because of the poor sampling.

And who would think that Kiner, a free swinger, would be more effective than the hunt-and-peck, hit-to-all-fields line drive hitters like Cobb, Speaker, Sisler, Rose, Frisch and the Waners?

And then how does one explain comparative non-entities who seem more dangerous as pinch-hitters than as regulars; such as, for instance, Smokey Burgess, who hit .295 as a regular, .286 as a pinch-hitter; Dave Philley (.270 and .299) and Ron Northey (.277 and .276). Yep, you're right. Baseball is a funny game.

TAG END: No one should really be shocked at the skyrocketing prices being demanded and for the most part received by basketball super-stars and potential super-stars. Sure, kids like Lew Alcindor are making twice or more as much as old, established baseball stars, for instance, like Willie Mays, for playing half as many games as baseball players do.

Aside from the War Between the Leagues, it really seems almost logical that key basketball players should demand more than key baseball and football stars. An ordinary basketball player is, theoretically, about twice as important as an ordinary baseball or football player, because there are roughly twice as many players in the regular lineup of baseball and football teams, (four times as many in football if you count the platoons) as there are in basketball. And then more than any other position in any game, with the possible exception of a football quarterback, a basketball pivot controls a game. You all know how Bill Russell took the Celtics from a high scoring mediocrity to a dynasty, and how Alcindor took a doormat to a position of legitimate title contender in one year.

The Neutral Corner

THE SPORT OF SWIMMING has long been, for us, a source of wonderment. No other sport seems to have had the peculiarities in rules and regulations as has the graceful art of propelling oneself through liquid chlorine.

Take for example the rule that existed up until two or three years ago that regulated false starts. If waiting for the gun to sound a swimmer dove into the water ahead of time, it was declared a false start and the whole lineup had to start over. If, however, a different swimmer happened to make the mistake the second time, he was disqualified even if he hadn't been the offending one the first time.

We've always been amazed, also, how a swimmer with a clocked time two or three-tenths of a second faster than another competitor could be judged to have finished behind the slower man. Why even use timers, one might ask?

The latest question we bring up concerns the just-completed Central Coast Section regional swim trials held at South San Francisco High School for Region I and at Sequoia High School for Region II. Why were they held at all?

Up until 1969 the top six qualifiers in the league trials all made berths in the regional meets. Then the top six from that meet went on to the sectional championships. Now the selection process has changed.

Before the season starts swimming coaches and league officials get together and decide on a mythical qualifying time for every event. Then if a swimmer matches or betters that time during any dual or trial meet he automatically qualifies for the section championships.

Needless to say, that depleted the ranks of swimmers this past weekend. The only ones at those two meets were the borderline swimmers who might have been one or two-tenths of a second away from the minimum requirement. Even at that, no one in the trials was guaranteed a spot in the finals. In fact, few made it after Saturday's trials.

The whole regional trial system could easily be on its way out. As it stands now it is reasonable to assume that if a swimmer hasn't made the minimum standard all season long what reason is there to expect he would in the trials? And even if he did he still might wind up 30 or 40 seconds slower than other swimmers in the same event. Why clutter up the pool with people that have no business in a championship meet?

Don't use the 'thrill of competition' example cited by some when referring to these borderline swimmers. What's the thrill in finishing 40 seconds behind the winner of the 200-freestyle event? No thrills. Just embarrassment.

As it is there will be anywhere from 18 to 24 swimmers in each event this Friday and Saturday at Foothill Junior College for the CCS finals. That potpourri could be trimmed by at least half leaving the best and the next-to-best still able to put on a good show and exciting competition.

EVER WONDER WHY THE MPL seems to have a number of protests during baseball season? So have we. So far this year there have been five protests filed with league commissioner Paul Hannig. As far as we know, one has been denied and one has been allowed.

From what we have seen, some of the MPL umpires are not capable of handling varsity games. Protests and field conduct seem to bear this out. Might it be a valid suggestion to the MPL organization to re-evaluate assignments and personnel before the next season comes around?

Hopefully some system of classroom instruction on protocol, conduct and mechanics will also be used. Common sense, in many instances, has not been used by MPL umpires. Witness last Friday's fiasco with Aragon. Many are top arbiters and are completely competent at handling games. But there are some we have seen who couldn't handle a pickup sandlot game of six-year olds. The stats for 1970 bear this out. The players deserve better than they've had this year.

THE SAN MATEO-BURLINGAME track meet, originally scheduled for Thursday, has been moved one day ahead and will begin tomorrow at 2 p.m. on the Panther field.

The move was requested to allow the Burlingame thinclads types a little more rest in between that meet and this weekend's Fresno Relay competition.

FOR THE CAUSE OF self-improvement, few athletes can hold a candle to those burly lads, Phil Florea and Steve Ralston, who throw their weights around for Hillsdale High School's track team.

Florea, the leading contender for shot put honors in the MPL Championship meet next week, improved his lifetime best mark to 55-5 Saturday in the Castro Valley Invitational, where he finished second. His previous best was 54-9½. The Knights' freshman sprinter, Roy Rose, incidentally, finished fourth in the Class B 100 in the same meet, with a 10.3 mark.

Ralston, who has come through handsomely in the absence of the injured Mike Davis, now holds a lifetime best of 171 feet in the discus. In two weeks' time, the big basketballer has increased his performance by almost four feet and has added more than 14 feet to his first competitive effort of the MPL dual meet season.

Pacifica Action

French Club On Top Of League

The high flying French Club remained on top of the Pacifica Basketball league with a 55 - 41 win over the hapless AAA. Seaborn paced the French Club with 17 point effort, while Rich Huckins scored 13 points for the AAA in a losing cause.

Dave Stevens and Bob Nicolopoulos combined for 34 points as the Jox moved into a second place tie with Kerri's Coffee Shop, by bombing the Sorefeet 94-59. Hanscumb paced the Sorefeet with 19 points.

Kerri's Coffee moved into a second place tie by dumping the Nubs 80 - 43 on the fine offensive shooting of Mike Kennedy and Ed Larios with 21 and 17 points apiece. Terry Christman was high for the Nubs with 11 points.

Dial Glass cracked the F-Troop by the score of 67 - 61. Mac Smith and Bob Fellows paced the win for Dail with 16 and 15 points respectively. Walt Kohnert was high point man in the game with 19 points for the F-Troop.

The Park, Beach and Recreation Department sponsored men's Slow - Pitch Softball League is getting under way this week at White Field with 17 ball clubs.

They include: Babe Zanca, 2901 Club, Manor Barber Shop, Mariners, Park Pacifica Union, Pacific Automative Repair, Romano's and Sander Header will make out the Southern Division. The Northern Division will include: Bunny Stop, 76ers, Egil Hansen Painting, Manor Merchants, Sears, Serra Ski n' Dive, West Wallboard and Winters Tavern.

Games will be played at White Field, Ortega West and Fairmont West Park through September.

Bruno Ball Game May Be Televised

A request of the San Bruno Chamber of Commerce to televise a Midget League baseball game on July 25 has been tentatively approved by the city councilmen.

In granting their approval the body instructed Chamber Manager Christopher Menkin to work out details concerning equipment requests of the National Association of Broadcasters Employes and Technicians (NABET) union.

Menkin said he was of the belief there would be no financial outlay by the city. Only that there might be a requirement for a telephone hookup, and that the city would pay for electricity.

However, City Mgr. Gerard Vergeer, said he received a letter from NABET in which they requested two platforms be constructed and a 60 amplifier outlet be made available. Vergeer estimated this request to cost in the neighborhood of $200.

Punt, Throw, Pitch Contest Set In SSF

The South San Francisco Recreation and Park Department, in cooperation with the Phillips 66 Oil Company will be holding the first annual Pitch, Hit and Throw Contest on Saturday, May 16, at Buri Buri Park.

Competition will be for boys between 9 and 12 years of age. Each boy will be tested in three skills.

In pitching, each boy will have five balls to throw into a target 46 feet away. He will be scored on the number of balls thrown into the target.

In Hitting, each boy will be scored on how far he can hit a ball on the fly in fair territory.

In Throwing, each boy gets one throw down a foul line. Distance and accuracy will be measured for his score.

The contest will start at 10 a.m. with the 9 year olds. At 11 a.m. the 10 year olds will be tested, at noon the 11 year olds, and at 1:00 p.m. the 12 year olds will be tested.

At the end of each hour, the points will be totaled and awards given to the winner in each of the age groups.

Daly City Bowling

Pearsall's 541 Serra Series

A 541 series may seem slight for a man but to Sam Pearsall it was very rewarding in the Blue Chip bowling last Friday at Serra Bowl.

Special to The Post

Pearsall hit the colored headpins with consistency to take home 7,260 stamps and on one ball alone he gained 5,000 of the merchandise ducats.

Topping the Daly City area bowlers is a junior, Wayne Chester of Westlake Bowl, who scored 808 recently to lead scratch bowlers in the area rolloff to qualify for the All - American Youth Bowling Association regional championships. Chester then came back and rolled a 707 series with a 259 high game in the Family Fours loop.

Westlake is buzzing with bowling parties currently being held for industry. Among the affairs last week was a Westlake Merchants Association fete that drew the VIP's and employees. Coming up this weekend is a Champagne Doubles Tournament for couples on Saturday night and a Mothers' Day Handicap Sweeper featuring a $225 first place check running all day Sunday.

Rex Golobic's Serra Bowl keglers are hitting the lanes with consistency in preparation for the Gigantic Handcap Tournament starting Memorial Day at Downtown Bowl and featuring the highest payoff in the west—$20,000 big ones.

The bowlers are currently rolling in the no-tap Pick Your Pro Tournament with handicap. Topping the competitors is Larry Pedone, who rolled a sizzling 277 game with 10 strikes and a third frame spare.

Ang Delodovicci hit the pocket in the Sunday Experimental loop with a 681 series. The veteran kegler rolled 181, then came back with 234 and finished with a 266 game.

Heritage Is Essay Topic

Does Milbrae care about its history? And, why shoud we preserve our American heritage? These are two questions be used as topics for an essay contest — outlined today — by a group of Mills High School students.

The contest, which is being orangized by a group of American history students at Mills who say they are concerned with "promoting interest in Millbrae's history" is under the guidance of Miss Virginia Gallaher.

Co-chairman of the event in which the winner will receive two free dinners at the 16-Mile House, are Terry Lustenberger and Ann Ringler.

Other students involved in the project are Ellie Marcus, Mike Daughtery, Debbie Miller and Jo Eckels.

Laguna Salada Event

Music Concert At Terra Nova High

The third annual Vocal Music Concert of the Laguna Salada School District is scheduled for Saturday night. The "Spring Sing" will be held at the Terra Nova High School, and will feature boys and girls from ten elementary schools in the District.

More than 500 pupils of grades 4-8 will be participating from Portola, Westview, Pacific Manor, Sharp Park, Vallemar, Linda Mar, Sanchez, Crespi, Ortega and Oddstad. Director for the musical event will again be Mr. Douglas Kidd, from the Richmond City Schools.

According to Consultant Pat Kennison, who has been coordinating the details of the concert, a variety of numbers will be featured, including "Let A Smile Be Your Umbrella," "Deep in the Heart of Texas" and "Seventy-Six Trombones." All music is from the regular classroom State Texts for music instruction.

Only one mass-rehearsal will be held — on Friday monrning — but pupils and teachers have been practicing the numbers as part of their vocal music program.

The "Spring Sing" is set to begin at 7:30. Marvin Morganti, curriculum director, encourages parents and music lovers to arrive early for the performance, as seating is limited, due to the large number of participants.

Councilman Sets Series Of Meetings

San Bruno Councilman Dick Griffith announced today that he is inaugurating a series of "weekend conversations with constituents" Saturday at 2 p.m. with an appearance at Thrifty Drug in Pacific Heights Shopping Plaza.

"The purpose will be to afford taxpayers of the neighborhoods a chance to meet their new councilman, ask questions and give suggestions—particularly with reference, at this time, to the upcoming budget deliberations.

"I want to maintain contact with the people. Unfortunately, not too many attend the 8 p.m. council meetings, fewer are able to make the 7 p.m. briefing meetings, and hardly any have attended the budget sessions in the past.

"By coming into their own immediate areas, I hope to encourage them to reciprocate and come down to city hall."

Griffith said his only other scheduled appearance this weekend would be at Alfred Alef Foods, 1019 San Mateo Avenue, in San Bruno—at 2 p.m. Sunday, May 3—but indicated he might arrange impromptu appearances at other markets.

WESTLAKE Shopping Center Merchants Association President Ed Speer smilingly presents Mrs. Donald Deschler of 390 St. Francis Blvd., Daly City a Shopping Center Merchandise Order in amount of $100, following her selection as "Armed Forces Mother of the Year of The United States." Mrs. Deschler will be the guest of Governor Ronald Reagan in San Diego this weekend. Mrs. Deschler will use the Merchants' gift to augment her wardrobe for the occasion. (Times Photo)

BETTER BUSINESS

By LORENE BEASLEY
Better Business Bureau

A real estate "investment" operation has been recently uncovered which has already taken a heavy toll in money as well as bitter frustration for the unfortunate victims. There are several variations of this scheme but it usually works this way:

The operators or "investors" watch the foreclosure lists which are published regularly in newspapers. When they find that the mortgage on a certain family's home is being foreclosed, an "investor" contacts them and, as to be expected finds them greatly upset about the foreclosure, their credit rating and a possible lawsuit from the mortgage company.

The "investor" promises the homeowner that he can help solve his problems if he will sign the property over to him so that he may sell the house. He assures the homeowner that his credit rating will not be damaged in any way and intimates that he may even make a profit on the sale of the house. A desperate homeowner is not too hard to persuade and the "investor" gets his signed quit-claim or grant deed.

The homeowner is then informed by the "new owner" that he and his family must move out in order for the property to be sold. Instead of selling, he rents the home to an unsuspecting victim.

After the tenant pays the first and last month's rent, the new "owner" waits for the mortgage company to complete the foreclosure of the home. The mortgage company proceeds with the foreclosure and is confronted by a furious renter who has lost both the rent money and the house.

The original owners, who were expecting to get some of their equity back when the house was sold, gets nothing and the "investor," better described as a "bleeder" often ends up with as much as $600.

In some cases the "bleeder" rented the house back to the owners. Sometimes he finds out, even before the foreclosure starts, that a homeowner is delinquent in his payments, and he collects rent money for several months before the tenants are evicted.

Resort Proposal Rejected

Plans for a private seashore resort community on the 5,100-acre Cascade Ranch at the southern tip of San Mateo County were shot down Wednesday by the County Planning Commission.

All five members of the commission expressed opposition after Consultant John McIntire of Monterey Park gave a general outline of what the owner, Theodore Char of Honolulu, has in mind for the property. They said the site is too remote for development at this time and should remain in its present status — as farmland and open space.

McIntire said the taxes on the ranch are three times what it can produce in agriculture, expressing a dilemma that is becoming increasingly acute throughout the county's rural area.

General plans for the project were outlined by McIntire in an informal hearing to get the reaction of the commissioners. First to tell his view was Robert Levy, outspoken Burlingame restaurateur.

"I'm against it," Levy declared. "The master plan shows agriculture and open space and I see no reason to change it."

The other commissioners said they concurred.

After the meeting McIntire told reporters that he did not know whether Char will want to pursue the present plan, order new plans or give up the idea of development for the time being. He estimated that $80,000 has been spent on planning to date.

Of the 5,100 acres, 500 are in Santa Cruz County. In McIntire's plan, the 500 acres would be part of a 2,400-acre wilderness park. Although the over-all density of the entire development would be one living unit per acre, most of the units would be in the coastal plain on both sides of Cabrillo Highway in San Mateo County. The plan shows 4,800 single-family homes in 1,910 acres

Milk Prices Are Reviewed

Minimum wholesale and minimum retail prices of milk in the Central Coast Counties Marketing Area will be reviewed at a public hearing in Oakland on May 12, the California Department of Agriculture said today. The hearing will be held in the Assembly Room, first floor, State Building, 1111 Jackson Street, Oakland, beginning at 9:30 a.m.

Milk distributors petitioned State Director of Agriculture Jerry W. Fielder for this review of current prices, department officials said.

The Central Coast Counties Marketing Area consists of the counties of Alameda, Contra Costa, Monterey, San Benito, San Francisco, San Mateo, Santa Clara and Santa Cruz.

Hearing Set In Pacifica

A public hearing will be held by the Pacifica City Council at 8 p.m., May 25, on an appeal from several Fairmont residents who are protesting Planning Commission allowing construction of 45 new apartments.

The Planning Commission granted to H. C. Dow an amendment to specific plans in the planned community concept of Fairmont, but a number of the area's residents have appealed the decision.

Dow wants to build the apartments on property owned by the United Presbyterian Church on Hickey Boulevard. The church no longer wants the land, which was specified in original planned community planning for church use.

$18,000 Talent Deserves More Than a $9000 Paycheck

If your income potential is $18,000 or better — and you're making half that — I can fit you into a challenging sales career that gives you the chance to be your own boss and earn what you're worth.

The individual I'm looking for must have drive, ambition and initiative. MANAGEMENT POTENTIAL IS IMPORTANT, too, because opportunities open up fast for those who qualify. You can set your own hours, work where you like — there are no geographical limits to your sales territory. You will be trained to sell a variety of products. You will receive a salary during the initial three-year training period, plus commissions, with no limit on the amount you can earn.

Interested? Write a brief letter, outlining your persona and business background. If you fit the picture, an interview will be arranged. Write Box 3519, THE TIMES, San Mateo

Athearn Comments Draw Sierra Club Criticism

Dr. Peter Scott, Chairman of Loma Prieta Chapter of the Sierra Club, today severely criticized Forden Athearn, Congressional candidate, who dismissed last week's Earth Day events as "a bunch of adolescents and rallies and screaming".

Scott said it was "extremely regrettable" that Athearn, a Hillsborough attorney challenging Congressman Pete McCloskey in the Republican primary, had "chosen to belittle the whole environmental movement just as we're getting up enough steam to solve some of our local and national environmental problems".

In a Monday morning debate with McCloskey, Athearn had lashed the second - term Congressman for his extensive participation in Earth Day and the nation - wide "Week of Concern" that preceded it. McCloskey was national co-chairman of the week.

Scott said he deplored Athearn's linking of the conservationist movement with "screaming and rioting". "Everyone from President Nixon to parents, teachers, government officials and religious leaders endorsed the Earth Day events as constructive," Scott said.

"Instead of rioting and destruction, this broad cross-section of the community has accomplished many good things in the Bay Area, including construction projects, clean - ups, tree plantings, and many, many other creative things", Scott said.

Scott said he also objected to Athearn's statement that conservation problems are better solved in government agencies and laboratories rather than by "a bunch of adolescents and rallies and screaming like we saw last week".

Halstead Hits Britschgi Talk

Republican State Senate candidate Sam Halsted took time out from a busy schedule of "Earth Week" activities to assail Assemblyman Carl A. Britschgi's recent statements on San Mateo County Coastside planning and recreation.

"Mr. Britschgi has again demonstrated the shallow thinking that has led to the economic and enviromental problems we have today," Halsted said.

"His statements reflect his ignorance of the facts and his inability to grasp current and future San Mateo County problems.

"For instance, only 15 miles of San Mateo County's 54 miles of beaches are in public ownership. The rest is owned privately and therefore subject to undisciplined development.

"Mr. Britschgi's statement that 90 per cent of the beach front is publicly owned shows that he is unaware of even the simple facts within San Mateo County.

"The Coastside has immense economic value to our county, but not as a bedroom community. We must expand our county economic base by using our land resources to create basic jobs in recreation and tourism employment.

"This is the fact which has escaped Mr. Britschgi. Our county will prosper, not suffer, through limited development of the Coastside," Halsted said.

Halsted, Mayor of Portola Valley and a long time conservationist, and Britschgi, Redwood City assemblyman, are leading Republican candidates for the State Senate seat now held by Senator Richard Dolwig. Dolwig is retiring.

Britschgi, in a public statement earlier this week, said that restrictions on Coastside development would "deprive those on the coastside of their property rights, and in many cases their livelihood itself."

The county's plan calls for preserving agriculture by protective zoning, Halsted pointed out.

"If agriculture is to remain, we must have tax relief for the Coastside. A one cent tax levy over the county would help save agriculture by providing tax revenues now lost to Coastside schools and local governments. This is a responsibility I propose we undertake," Halsted said.

Britschgi also proposed that Coastside planning "is a job for specialists," Halsted said. "Today, the Bay is polluted almost beyond recovery. Fill for residential and commercial developments have threatened to reduce the size of the Bay until it is in danger of becoming little more than a stream.

"We cannot permit this kind of piecemeal planning to ruin the Coastside."

Halsted, as chairman of the county's Parks and Open Space Planning Committee, led the fight to have that group's recommendations adopted by the Board of Supervisors. It called for public - private partnership to develop San Mateo County's recreational resources.

"Our plan recognized that public ownership must be limited on the Coastside, but that severe restrictions should be put on developers who are reaching for a quick profit in building bedroom communities," Halsted said.

THERE WILL BE A picnic for residents of northern San Mateo County on Saturday, May 9, noon to 4:00 p.m. Sam Halsted, candidate for the State Senate, and his wife Mercedes will be there to meet people and discuss the issues. There will be free soft drinks, games for everyone, races for children, free balloons and candy, and prizes. Families are asked to bring their lunch and join Sam.

Pacifica Woman Hurt In Jump

A Pacifica woman was seriously injured early Sunday when she leaped from her car while it was going an estimated 50 miles an hour on Bayshore Freeway in San Carlos.

Also injured was her companion, who remained in the driverless car as it careened off the freeway, crashed through a fence, leveled a utility pole, hurdled a guard rail and finally came to a stop on Monte Vista Road.

In satisfactory condition today in Sequoia Hospital is Florabelle Loretta Alexander, 42 of 251 Crestmoor Circle, Pacifica, who suffered a broken left ankle and multiple lacerations, abrasions and bruises. Released after treatment at the hospital was Robert Caesar Good, 37, also of Pacifica, who sustained multiple bruises and abrasions and lost several teeth.

Mrs. Alexander told Highway Patrolmen J. R. Risley and K. B. Strickland that she was driving northbound at 3:20 a.m. when Good, with whom she had been arguing, struck her in the nose. She said she simply opened the door and jumped out.

The officers said her sedan was demolished.

Arlen Gregorio In D.C. Sundy

State Senate candidate Arlen Gregorio will be in Daly City Sunday May 10 to meet North County residents.

Gregorio will greet guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Roy J. Tierney, 55 Castillejo Drive, between 2-4 p.m.

Gregoiro is chairman of the San Mateo County Democratic Central Committee; member, Executive Committee, California Democratic State Central Committee and an elected Member of the San Mateo County Democratic Central Committee since 1960.

He is presently Deputy City Attorney for the City of San Bruno.

As a long - time advocate for ecological quality, a mountaineer and conservationist, Gregorio was a key leader in the successful fight to save the San Francisco Bay Conservation and Development Commission.
